

WISCONSIN ANSWERS PEACE OVERTURES

AMERICANS CONTINUE TO POUND HUNS

FIGHTERS CONTINUE TO DRIVE GERMAN BACK DESPITE DESPERATE RESISTANCE OFFERED.

USING BEST DIVISIONS

War Has Thrown Some of His Best Divisions Against American Front With the Same Result.

Washington, Oct. 7.—Slight advances yesterday by American forces between the Meuse and the Bois-des-Argonne in heavy infantry fighting was reported today by General Pershing. He also reported increased artillery activity everywhere on both sides. A communique for Sunday adding to one received last night reached the war department as follows:

With the American Army North-west of Verdun, Oct. 6.—Private Jacob Ritter, of Pennsylvania, a Dutchman by ancestry, is the first American soldier to hold a conversation with the Germans over the telephone, since the United States declared war.

During the rapid advance of the Americans northward in this region, Ritter, together with six other privates, effected an enemy digout and discovered a German central telephone exchange. Ritter at first supposed the wires had been cut, but was much surprised to hear voices in German when he removed the receiver.

The Pennsylvania man understood German sufficiently to listen to the conversation being carried on. He called a comrade to the receiver who also understood the enemy tongue.

The speaker was evidently a German artillery officer making a report, somewhat in the nature of a complaint, to his superior. "Shelling us heavily," whereupon Ritter's comrade asked:

"Who is there?"

"A couple of Americans," Ritter responded. "I hope they give you hell, good day."

After then tore the phone from the wall and sat down to enjoy a hearty laugh at the German's expense. Interruption in the telephone conversation evidently tipped the Germans off to the exact location of the Americans and a few minutes later six shells burst within a radius of seventy yards of the digout.

The Pennsylvania and his comrade went about a hasty retreat from the vicinity.

Incidentally the captured telephone exchange represents but one of a few of the enemy phone exchanges that we have captured. The Germans are usually withdrawing all apparatus and wire as soon as we begin an advance.

Slight Advance.

Section A.—Our troops have made slight advances during the day between the Meuse and Bois-des-Argonne. There has been stubborn infantry fighting. Further to the west machine gun and mortar fire has been increased and heavy with overhanging increased artillery activity by both sides.

Capture Nest.

American headquarters in France. Americans fighting under the command of General Gouraud are credited with an amazing performance in the fighting of the Bois-des-Argonne sector. A detachment, assisted by French volunteers, under an American captain, attacked a strong machine gun nest on the slope of Blanc Mont, which had been held by the enemy. With great skill the nest was enveloped and captured and the entire garrison of four officers and 250 men made prisoners. Several trench mortars and several trucks were taken. The Americans did not suffer a single casualty. The enemy is now being driven back into the line some of his best divisions are today being sent to the American front.

One of the most important of the troops who have been resting in Alsace for the last few days.

Yanked in Blighty.

London.—American troops are among the wounded who are arriving in large numbers at the various military hospitals in England. They are being treated every day and are being sent back to the front as soon as they are able to do so. The allies have Fritz beaten to a frazzle. Wounded German prisoners are being sent back to Germany to be treated.

Rheims Cleared.

Rheims has been finally and definitely cleared from the menace of German cannon. The Germans are in retreat on the whole front from the Sambre to the Aisne, as well as in the region south of Cambrai. In the first

War at a Glance

GERMANS RETREAT.—Outfought by the French and Americans the Germans are retreating on wide fronts in Champagne sectors between Rheims and Argonne forest. The enemy has been fought between General Berthelot's army on the west and General Gouraud's army on the east and is retreating northward toward the Rottor river. It may be possible for him to stand back of that stream, but it seems improbable that there will be much of a halt in the retreat until the Germans reach the Aisne. General Berthelot's advance in the Rheims region has gravely menaced the enemy's forces south of the Rottor and although the retrograde movement is being covered by rear guards well supplied with machine guns it appeared to be going on rapidly. The French seem to have reached the Sambre over a wide front.

AMERICANS ACTIVE.—American forces have been battling brilliantly with Gouraud's army and aided materially in expelling the enemy from the Champagne sector. Further east the Americans fighting between Argonne forest and the Meuse river are slowly clearing the Germans from the area before the Kesternhilde line and are gathering their forces for an assault on that powerful position. From the region of Lille southward the German forces retired began when Lens and Arras were abandoned last week, continuing with what appears to be precipitation. There is every reason to believe the city of Arras has been evacuated and the enemy within a few days and his retirement will extend on this front to the St. Quentin sector, where both the French and British are reported to be clearing through the Hindenburg line.

MUSE GRAY.—So far the German line from St. Quentin south to the Ailette and thence eastward to Barry-au-Bac is standing quite firmly and evidently this part of the front position is being used as a pivot as the armies to the north and east are forcing back to new positions. Italian forces however, have struck at the German line in front of Laon and in reports of progress there would appear to justify the belief the foe's line may be broken.

German detachments which have been fighting beside the Bulgarian army in Macedonia are being withdrawn, according to the latest news reported to have inflicted a defeat on German and Austrian units near the city of Vranje.

GERMANS MUST FIGHT.—"Unconditional surrender," the answer which the American press to the appeal for peace made by Austria and Germany. Official copies of the proposal of the central powers upon President Wilson but it is reported that attitude of officials at Washington does not encourage the hope entertained by the enemy that the allies can be induced to enter into negotiation at a time when German armies are in retreat and when Marshal Foch's treaty strategy is beginning to bear fruit.

LITTLE CONSIDERATION.—So far as press comments are felt the situation in France and England is one of no disposition to make any concession to the effort of the enemy other than a new maneuver which promises little more than might have been expected from the German side.

named sector, the allies have reached the Arnes river on which the enemy hoped to make a stand. In the second region the British which the crushed German army in an effort to prevent its progress toward Bohemia and cover their retreat.

Part of Plan.

These two elements of a retreat form part of a plan which was brought the German army to a new line of resistance much nearer the front, it appeared, but the conclusion of the plan must be difficult and hazardous.

The peace proposal interfering with the execution of the plan must be difficult and hazardous. The peace proposal interfering with the execution of the plan must be difficult and hazardous.

Laon Ablaze.

Laon has been ablaze since yesterday, indicating the enemy may be about to leave that city. The town of Laon has been ablaze since yesterday, indicating the enemy may be about to leave that city.

French Advance.

Paris, Oct. 7.—French troops last night captured the town of St. Maas, northeast of Rheims and pushed to the east and north of Arnes river, the French war office announced today. Northeast of St. Quentin the French attacked the German positions in an effort to capture the town of Tilly.

English Advance.

London, Oct. 7.—Further progress was made by the British last night on the front between Lens and Cambrai. Field Marshal Haig announced today that the British had captured the town of Tilly.

ASK POSTPONEMENT OF ALL ANTI-TRUST CASES

Washington, Oct. 7.—Upon the government motion the supreme court is to be asked to postpone consideration of all pending anti-trust cases because of the war.

REHEIMS CLEARED.

Rheims has been finally and definitely cleared from the menace of German cannon. The Germans are in retreat on the whole front from the Sambre to the Aisne, as well as in the region south of Cambrai. In the first

WISCONSIN'S HONOR ROLL

Casualties reported today are: Killed in action, 337; missing in action, 283; wounded severely, 64; died from wounds, 169; died from accident or other causes, 22; died from disease, 65; wounded slightly, 11; prisoners, 7. Total, 1,765. Wisconsin soldiers listed are:

KILLED IN ACTION.
Capt. Alfred E. Gauer, Milwaukee.
Sergeant William B. Hous, Appleton.
Sergeant William George Gerke, Madison.

Wagoner John J. Orzechowski, Milwaukee.
Sergeant Frank Phillips, Oshkosh.
Sergeant Everett O. Johnston, Appleton.

Sergeant Frank Prochnowski, Menasha.
Sergeant Joseph J. Pinaert, Madison.
Sergeant Harold Edwin Juckel, Marshfield.

Priv. August Boden, Wausau.
Priv. John Markowski, Superior.
Priv. Henry Engwald Bronsted, Tomahawk.

Priv. Leo John Gernerschausen, Milwaukee.
Priv. Walter F. Schmidt, Fond du Lac.

Sergeant Barney Tomanski, Milwaukee.
Sergeant Joseph Gebert, Princeton.
Sergeant Guy Ogden, Edgerton.

Corp. Harvey D. Manson, Madison.
Mechanic Frank E. Fritz, Stevens Point.
Priv. Earl Edgar Casford, Oshkosh.

Priv. Raleigh A. Fowler, Beloit.
Priv. Leonard T. Grabowski, Milwaukee.
Priv. Joseph Kullinski, Milwaukee.

Priv. John Malinski, Milwaukee.
Priv. Gale Weston, Sextonville.
Priv. Julius Zubin, Milwaukee.

DIED OF DISEASE.
Sergeant Harold Lee, Wheeler.
Corp. Raymond J. Rousseau, Rhineland.

Corp. Melvin L. Jenkins, Sawyer.
Corp. Harry S. South, Oakfield.
Corp. Leo J. Lonsky, Wausau.

Priv. Charles Robert Hagerstrom, Grand Rapids.
DIED OF DISEASE.
Sergeant Henry Fatouh, Sturgeon Bay.

Priv. Bernard N. Jacobson, Hudson.
WOUNDED.
Sergeant James G. Egan, Eau Claire.
Sergeant WILBERT RYAN, JANESVILLE.

Sergeant Isadore C. Rheume, Rhineland.
Corp. George D. Lichterman, Lyndhurst.

Corp. Elmer Grassman, Kendall.
Corp. John V. Wells, Bradley.
Corp. Minot Alfred Potter, Wausau.

Corp. Edward Houston Price, DeLam.
Corp. Herbert Englander, Kimball.
Grand Arthur J. Kroepf, Milwaukee.

Corp. Henry H. Prest, Beaver Dam.
Priv. Elmer Cole, Chetek.
Priv. Les J. Hein, Wausau.

Priv. Harry S. Hein, Wausau.
Priv. Sigurd Stendahl, La Crosse.
Priv. Charles B. Thomas, Rhineland.

Harry A. Wilkins, Rhineland.
Priv. Robert G. Cushing, Wilson.
Priv. Anton T. Wenzel, Marathon City.

Priv. Nathan D. Wilson, La Farge.
Priv. Frank C. Schroeder, Rhineland.
Priv. Carl D. Jenkins, Robbins.

Priv. Leslie Eugene Asbury, Sparta.
Priv. Alex L. Gramza, Milwaukee.
Priv. A. M. Thompson, Stoughton.

Priv. W. C. McMillan, Milwaukee.
Priv. Joe J. Prever, Appleton.
Corp. Allen L. Wright, Paris.

Corp. Martin Krawczyk, Milwaukee.
Musician E. E. Thieleman, Milwaukee.
Priv. Albert H. Meer, West Bend.

Priv. F. Winickel, New Franken.
Priv. Arthur Wolf, Oconto Falls.
Priv. George J. Hous, Milwaukee.

Priv. Hyman Tishler, Milwaukee.
Priv. H. L. Goman, Baraboo.
Priv. Henry Owen, Milwaukee.

Priv. Rolfe Warner, Kaukauna.
Priv. Fredrick T. Hous, Rapids.
Priv. E. J. Goetzmann, Kaukauna.

Priv. Chas. W. Wege, Neenah.
Corp. Floyd A. Yres, Manitowish.
Corp. Glen G. Walker, Milwaukee.

Corp. Eric J. Hous, Milwaukee.
Priv. Fred Anthony, Excelsior.
Priv. Otto N. Hesterman, Soldiers Grove.

Priv. Jas. Carroll, Mauston.
Priv. George Butler, Reserve.
Priv. Edw. J. Egan, Milwaukee.

Priv. E. A. Schender, Spillville.
MISSING IN ACTION.
Priv. Harry J. Chalk, Tomahawk.

Corp. W. Koppelmeyer, Portage.
Priv. Wm. H. Thompson, Milwaukee.
Priv. Gust Brzezinski, Wausau.

Priv. H. B. Gerke, Wausau.
Priv. Henry Empey, Wausau.
Priv. John Scutowski, Wausau.

WOUNDED. (Degree Undetermined)
Priv. Henry Bunkle, Oshkosh.
Priv. Henry Bunkle, Oshkosh.

COLONEL ROOSEVELT SPEAKS IN MINNEAPOLIS

Minneapolis, Oct. 7.—Theodore Roosevelt was here today to make formal address on behalf of the Liberty loan. He was scheduled to speak before the local business men at noon, and at two mass meetings tonight.

Commenting on the German peace offensive Colonel Roosevelt said: "I hope we can under no circumstances will we consent to a suspension of hostilities until Germany surrenders unconditionally." He added that the German peace drive is only a part of the German war drive.

WILL GIVE ANSWER OF THE ALLES

GERMANY'S LAST PEACE PROPOSAL LOOKED UP AS NEW SCHEME TO GAIN TIME AND NOT TO BE CONSIDERED.

NO ARMISTICE NOW

President Wilson Refused Both the Austrian and German Requests at the Same Time—Refused to be Expected by Diplomats.

Washington, Oct. 7.—The note from Germany and Austria asking for an immediate armistice and discussion of peace on conditions previously laid down by President Wilson were placed in the president's hands today.

Formal comment was withheld everywhere in official quarters pending the president's decision as to what shall be America's reply.

There was no difference of opinion however, on one point—that there will be no suspension of hostilities in the event of negotiation of any kind are entered into.

The only question among officials and diplomats seem to be whether President Wilson would be willing to ask the allies to consider negotiations even with the fighting continuing.

While word from the White House was awaited the senate discussed the latest phase of the peace offensive, leaders on both sides declaring emphatically no suspension of hostilities should be contemplated.

Senator Lodge declared the only course open was to complete the defeat of the Germans.

England Skeptical.

London, Oct. 7.—Destruction of Germany's intention and skepticism as to the result of the peace overture of the central power are reflected in comment made in the peace proposal by the newspapers here.

Paris, Oct. 7.—Austria-Hungary recently again insisted the Vatican undertake a step toward peace. It is reported in Rome, however, that the Vatican is added rejected the demand.

General Opinion.

Washington, Oct. 7.—The newest peace proposal of the German government as quoted in a dispatch from Amsterdam differed from the previous one in tone, but not in substance.

Both governments accept President Wilson's principle not as a basis of peace but simply as a basis of negotiation. The Swiss legation no estimate as to how the enemy proposal was regarded by the United States was to be expected. On their part the requirement laid down by President Wilson.

The spokesman for the entire government is the opinion here, Germany will eventually make a peace offering. With considering that the war may not be prolonged unnecessarily, no proposal from the enemy are to be rejected without examination.

There is however, a well defined test which must be met by any offer. It must be a peace proposal. It was noted that it was made to the president with a request that he invite "American associates" in the opening of plenipotentiaries or the opening of negotiations. Attention was also directed to the fact that throughout the note the term "The German government" was used with the "imperial" omitted.

This copy of the note, however, was not the official one. In the general discussion of the proposal, two thoughts were voiced in many quarters. One was Germany might be sparing for time and winter to shelter her battered army and the other that the German government at this time might have been intended to effect the 14th Liberty Loan campaign by leading many people in America to believe the end of the war is near.

No one in Washington gave thought to any proposal that the victorious force of the allies and Americans should cease their steady push against the retreating "peace terms." As to the effect on the liberty loan there was a quietly confident air everywhere that the American people would give their peace on all terms by an even greater oversubscription of the loan than otherwise might have been expected.

No Armistice

London, Oct. 7.—No armistice will be granted the central powers before the complete conquest of them by the allies and the burning of allied villages and cities. This is the personal opinion of foreign diplomats of the highest rank here who have been negotiating concerning the German question since the fall of Max of Baden.

Reply Decisive.

Washington, Oct. 7.—A prompt and decisive reply to Germany's peace proposal is indicated by development in Washington, early today. President Wilson cancelled his personal morning recreation hour and remained secluded in his study.

Prince Maximilian's note was received during the night at the British legation where arrangements were made to deliver it at once to the state department for transmission to the president.

Quite irrespective of the nature of the reply, it seems to be agreed the German note calls for a prompt reply so the American people might not lead into relaxation of their efforts for the Fourth Liberty Loan, so the American troops in the field know at once the position of the government. The offer of peace may receive such diplomatic attention as it deserves.

The Austrian Note

Minister Ekanger of Sweden presented a note from Baron Burian, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, to Secretary Lansing at 10:30 o'clock. He was at the state department only a few minutes. The Austrian communication is substantially the same as that from Germany, and both ask President Wilson to arrange an armistice, and for peace negotiations previously laid down by the president. It is said neither of the official text differs materially from the version published in press dispatches.

Official announcement of the attitude of the United States stills being withheld but there is no abatement of the German peace drive. Germany seeks a "negotiation" leading to round table conferences and diplomatic quibbling, the offer will fall flat.

FIRE BREAKS OUT AT THE ARSENAL AT ROCK ISLAND

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Rock Island, Ill., Oct. 7.—Fire of unknown origin broke out at the Rock Island arsenal at 11 o'clock this morning. The camp is situated near the big T. N. T. plant at the arsenal, and every effort is being made to prevent its spread.

In addition to the fire department at the arsenal outside help was called for from the fire departments at Davenport, Rock Island, and Moline. With the Rock Island fire department on a strike the city was able to respond with only half a dozen men who had not gone out, and a few volunteers.

The fire at the arsenal was reported making headway and at an early hour the damage was estimated at several thousand dollars. The Rock Island arsenal is the largest in the United States, and the T. N. T. plant threatened by the fire is the largest one owned and operated by the government.

At ten o'clock the fire was burning fiercely and an east wind was driving the flames and flying debris in the direction of the great T. N. T. plant. Fighting forces had a large number of streams of water playing on the flames which, though enclosed in a box barrage, was the buildings of new, dry lumber were being rapidly consumed.

The authorities, it is said, are prepared to demolish the buildings in the immediate vicinity of the T. N. T. plant should it become threatened. At 10:45 the fire had been brought under control and by 11:15 it was removed. The officials made no announcement of the total property loss suffered.

department for transmission to the president.

Quite irrespective of the nature of the reply, it seems to be agreed the German note calls for a prompt reply so the American people might not lead into relaxation of their efforts for the Fourth Liberty Loan, so the American troops in the field know at once the position of the government.

The offer of peace may receive such diplomatic attention as it deserves.

The Austrian Note

Minister Ekanger of Sweden presented a note from Baron Burian, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, to Secretary Lansing at 10:30 o'clock. He was at the state department only a few minutes. The Austrian communication is substantially the same as that from Germany, and both ask President Wilson to arrange an armistice, and for peace negotiations previously laid down by the president. It is said neither of the official text differs materially from the version published in press dispatches.

Official announcement of the attitude of the United States stills being withheld but there is no abatement of the German peace drive. Germany seeks a "negotiation" leading to round table conferences and diplomatic quibbling, the offer will fall flat.

There is however, a well defined test which must be met by any offer. It must be a peace proposal. It was noted that it was made to the president with a request that he invite "American associates" in the opening of plenipotentiaries or the opening of negotiations. Attention was also directed to the fact that throughout the note the term "The German government" was used with the "imperial" omitted.

This copy of the note, however, was not the official one. In the general discussion of the proposal, two thoughts were voiced in many quarters. One was Germany might be sparing for time and winter to shelter her battered army and the other that the German government at this time might have been intended to effect the 14th Liberty Loan campaign by leading many people in America to believe the end of the war is near.

No one in Washington gave thought to any proposal that the victorious force of the allies and Americans should cease their steady push against the retreating "peace terms." As to the effect on the liberty loan there was a quietly confident air everywhere that the American people would give their peace on all terms by an even greater oversubscription of the loan than otherwise might have been expected.

No Armistice

London, Oct. 7.—No armistice will be granted the central powers before the complete conquest of them by the allies and the burning of allied villages and cities. This is the personal opinion of foreign diplomats of the highest rank here who have been negotiating concerning the German question since the fall of Max of Baden.

Reply Decisive.

Washington, Oct. 7.—A prompt and decisive reply to Germany's peace proposal is indicated by development in Washington, early today. President Wilson cancelled his personal morning recreation hour and remained secluded in his study.

Prince Maximilian's note was received during the night at the British legation where arrangements were made to deliver it at once to the state department for transmission to the president.

Quite irrespective of the nature of the reply, it seems to be agreed the German note calls for a prompt reply so the American people might not lead into relaxation of their efforts for the Fourth Liberty Loan, so the American troops in the field know at once the position of the government.

The offer of peace may receive such diplomatic attention as it deserves.

The Austrian Note

Minister Ekanger of Sweden presented a note from Baron Burian, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, to Secretary Lansing at 10:30 o'clock. He was at the state department only a few minutes. The Austrian communication is substantially the same as that from Germany, and both ask President Wilson to arrange an armistice, and for peace negotiations previously laid down by the president. It is said neither of the official text differs materially from the version published in press dispatches.

Official announcement of the attitude of the United States stills being withheld but there is no abatement of the German peace drive. Germany seeks a "negotiation" leading to round table conferences and diplomatic quibbling, the offer will fall flat.

There is however, a well defined test which must be met by any offer. It must be a peace proposal. It was noted that it was made to the president with a request that he invite "American associates" in the opening of plenipotentiaries or the opening of negotiations. Attention was also directed to the fact that throughout the note the term "The German government" was used with the "imperial" omitted.

This copy of the note, however, was not the official one. In the general discussion of the proposal, two thoughts were voiced in many quarters. One was Germany might be sparing for time and winter to shelter her battered army and the other that the German government at this time might have been intended to effect the 14th Liberty Loan campaign by leading many people in America to believe the end of the war is near.

No one in Washington gave thought to any proposal that the victorious force of the allies and Americans should cease their steady push against the retreating "peace terms." As to the effect on the liberty loan there was a quietly confident air everywhere that the American people would give their peace on all terms by an even greater oversubscription of the loan than otherwise might have been expected.

SOCIALISTS REQUEST THAT GERMAN PEACE OFFER BE DISCUSSED

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Paris, Oct. 7.—The national congress of the socialist party which opened here yesterday, accepted a resolution addressed to President Wilson concerning the peace proposal of the central powers. It is expressed the views of the party, that while indispensable diplomatic and military guarantee should be exacted from the enemy, it was the duty of the allied nations not to reject without discussion, such proposals as have been made.

Such proposals as have been made, the message says, the party notes with joy, the new result of the sustained effort put forth and the great sacrifices made by the soldiers of the allied democracy. The party likewise sees in the note made by the central powers, accompanied by the government of the allies, a frank declaration of their purpose. The previous action of the congress in endorsing President Wilson's fourteen peace points market a review of the basis of peace.

"The party associates itself more than ever in all acts of President Wilson, which will have the result of giving the workers the right to the struggle, and who have the right, more than all others, of having the response to the central power not open to any understanding. It is the duty of the party, which feels it, like President Wilson, is working to bring about a just and durable peace."

Peace Proposals of Germany Cause General Selling

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

New York, Oct. 7.—The new peace proposal from the central power caused general selling of war shares in the first hour of today's stock market. The reaction of 2 to 4 1/2 points. Weakness was again accentuated in such favorites as Bethlehem, Lackawanna, Crucible and Buft States Baldwin Locomotives.

C. S. Smith, who directed the attention of the professional element regarding 1%, an offering which ranges from small lots to 2500 shares. Italian bond and oil stock, however, were strong.

General of Bulgarian Division Surrenders Force to Allied Army

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Paris, Oct. 7.—The general to command of the 11th Bulgarian division has surrendered his force to the allied troops in Macedonia. The division is composed of two brigades and with it a very large quantity of war material which fell into the hands of the allies.

Athens, Sunday, Oct. 7.—Greek and allied troops along the newspaper Emvros will strike into eastern Macedonia toward the Rhodope mountains and beyond the west of rivers. The Rhodope mountains are bordered by Eastern Macedonia and Thrace from the north, Bulgaria from the south, and Rumelia, Bulgaria.

Asterdum.—Bulgaria on Saturday notified the power with which he had been allied. They must cut Bulgarian territory within a narrow space. Sophia dispatches to Targelblatt.

Siberians Active

Paris, Oct. 7.—Yesterday the town of Debrin on the Elbe river and other towns northeast of Lebasan, Albania, has been completely occupied by Siberian troops, according to the French official statement issued tonight.

AMERICAN CIGAR CO. HAS BEEN INDICTED

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

New York, Oct. 7.—Federal indictment charging violation of the Sherman anti-trust act and Wilson law, returned here today against the Samathra Corporation General Cigar Co., American Cigar Co., H. Duns & Co., and fourteen individual defendants.

SHEBOYGAN LADY COMMITS SUICIDE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Sheboygan, Oct. 7.—Mrs. Kittie Schwartz, 54, wife of Peter Schwartz, threw herself in front of a train on the Milwaukee road at random Lake Sunday morning, and her body was cut in two. Only recently Mrs. Schwartz was brought back from a sanitarium in Milwaukee, seemingly in improved health. She left a husband residing in the town of Mitchell.

CHIEF OF GERMAN POLICE IS KILLED

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Zurich, Haver, Oct. 7.—The chief of German police in Warsaw, Poland, has been shot by an unidentified person. The assassin fled.

Generals, Captains, Liberty Loan Workers

Janesville Loan Organization:

I wish to particularly call your attention to the fraudulent statement, emanating from Germany, to the effect that Germany is asking peace on the Allies' terms. This false statement is made for the purpose of injuring the Fourth Liberty Loan. Place no credence in it and continue your efforts to the utmost to sell bonds until our city has gone "over the top" for the Fourth Liberty Loan.

A. E. Matheson
Publicity Chairman,
Fourth Liberty Loan Committee.

HUN PEACE PROPOSAL IS SCOFFED AT

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Members of Senate Military Committee State That Germany Should Not Be Granted No Armistice.

MUST DISBAND ARMY

Declare That Allies Will Deal With Representatives of German People When Time Comes to Talk Peace.

Washington, Oct. 7.—Discussing German peace offers in the senate today, Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, chairman of foreign relations committee declared "absolute abhorrence" even a thought of suspension of hostilities now and recommended the addition to the principals laid down to the president and as a basis for peace and provisions the allies would deal only with real representatives of the German people.

Must Disband Army

Senator McCumber of North Dakota introduced a resolution which was referred to the foreign relations committee providing that before the United States agree to any armistice, the German army must be disbanded and agree to pay for damages to city and country devastated. (Lorraine, together with non-ally exacted from France in 1870.

No Armistice

Republican Leader Lodge, ranking minority member of foreign relations committee, declared an armistice would mean the loss of the war and all we have fought for. "Germany," he said, "now merely proposed a long debate on the basis of peace. The only purpose course Senator Lodge declared, is to secure a complete military victory over Germany and force her to sue for peace."

NO LET UP IN SALE OF LIBERTY BONDS IN SEVENTH DISTRICT

Chicago, Oct. 7.—Liberty Loan crews in many parts of the seventh district were busy explaining today the reasons why the sale of bonds was very profitable. In Wisconsin the drive was reported going at high speed after a slow start. Milwaukee had sixty-one per cent of the quota set for Copyright 1918 by George Matthew Adams.

"CAPS" A GREAT THINKER.

"CAP STUBBS"

JANESVILLE LOSES SECOND GAME, 51 TO 0

Walworth Swamps Locals in Second Contest of Season By Score of 51 to 0.

To O. Team Displays Poor Form

Outclassed and outclassed, the Janesville High School football team was down to defeat, at the hands of Walworth by the score of 51 to 0. The inability of Janesville's line to hold was a large factor in the defeat. Time after time, Walworth's big line back would blow through the line each time making substantial gains. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won.

Janesville was outclassed, the Janesville High School football team was down to defeat, at the hands of Walworth by the score of 51 to 0. The inability of Janesville's line to hold was a large factor in the defeat. Time after time, Walworth's big line back would blow through the line each time making substantial gains. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won.

Janesville was outclassed, the Janesville High School football team was down to defeat, at the hands of Walworth by the score of 51 to 0. The inability of Janesville's line to hold was a large factor in the defeat. Time after time, Walworth's big line back would blow through the line each time making substantial gains. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won.

Janesville was outclassed, the Janesville High School football team was down to defeat, at the hands of Walworth by the score of 51 to 0. The inability of Janesville's line to hold was a large factor in the defeat. Time after time, Walworth's big line back would blow through the line each time making substantial gains. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won.

Janesville was outclassed, the Janesville High School football team was down to defeat, at the hands of Walworth by the score of 51 to 0. The inability of Janesville's line to hold was a large factor in the defeat. Time after time, Walworth's big line back would blow through the line each time making substantial gains. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won.

Janesville was outclassed, the Janesville High School football team was down to defeat, at the hands of Walworth by the score of 51 to 0. The inability of Janesville's line to hold was a large factor in the defeat. Time after time, Walworth's big line back would blow through the line each time making substantial gains. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won.

Janesville was outclassed, the Janesville High School football team was down to defeat, at the hands of Walworth by the score of 51 to 0. The inability of Janesville's line to hold was a large factor in the defeat. Time after time, Walworth's big line back would blow through the line each time making substantial gains. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won.

Janesville was outclassed, the Janesville High School football team was down to defeat, at the hands of Walworth by the score of 51 to 0. The inability of Janesville's line to hold was a large factor in the defeat. Time after time, Walworth's big line back would blow through the line each time making substantial gains. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won.

Janesville was outclassed, the Janesville High School football team was down to defeat, at the hands of Walworth by the score of 51 to 0. The inability of Janesville's line to hold was a large factor in the defeat. Time after time, Walworth's big line back would blow through the line each time making substantial gains. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won.

Janesville was outclassed, the Janesville High School football team was down to defeat, at the hands of Walworth by the score of 51 to 0. The inability of Janesville's line to hold was a large factor in the defeat. Time after time, Walworth's big line back would blow through the line each time making substantial gains. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won.

Janesville was outclassed, the Janesville High School football team was down to defeat, at the hands of Walworth by the score of 51 to 0. The inability of Janesville's line to hold was a large factor in the defeat. Time after time, Walworth's big line back would blow through the line each time making substantial gains. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won.

Janesville was outclassed, the Janesville High School football team was down to defeat, at the hands of Walworth by the score of 51 to 0. The inability of Janesville's line to hold was a large factor in the defeat. Time after time, Walworth's big line back would blow through the line each time making substantial gains. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won.

Janesville was outclassed, the Janesville High School football team was down to defeat, at the hands of Walworth by the score of 51 to 0. The inability of Janesville's line to hold was a large factor in the defeat. Time after time, Walworth's big line back would blow through the line each time making substantial gains. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won.

Janesville was outclassed, the Janesville High School football team was down to defeat, at the hands of Walworth by the score of 51 to 0. The inability of Janesville's line to hold was a large factor in the defeat. Time after time, Walworth's big line back would blow through the line each time making substantial gains. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won.

Janesville was outclassed, the Janesville High School football team was down to defeat, at the hands of Walworth by the score of 51 to 0. The inability of Janesville's line to hold was a large factor in the defeat. Time after time, Walworth's big line back would blow through the line each time making substantial gains. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won.

Janesville was outclassed, the Janesville High School football team was down to defeat, at the hands of Walworth by the score of 51 to 0. The inability of Janesville's line to hold was a large factor in the defeat. Time after time, Walworth's big line back would blow through the line each time making substantial gains. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won. Walworth's line was easily moved back and the game was easily won.

MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL WILL END AT MEETING

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

New York, Oct. 7.—Major league baseball, in so far as it concerns the national league, will be officially terminated at the annual meeting of the association to be held in this city on Dec. 10. At the gathering the senior organization will formally wind up the business affairs of the season just closed and enter upon a hiatus which will remain undisturbed until such time as international affairs appear to warrant a revival of the professional end of the national game.

This, at least, is the intention of the magnates at the present time and nothing short of a most sensational change in the war status within the next two months will cause a shift in the plans of the league. It requires a long period of preparation and much detail work, prior to the opening of each season, and it is recognized that in the present unsettled state of baseball affairs it would be impossible to renew the operation of the circuit without ample time in which to formulate arrangements. A declaration of peace coming late next spring would prove of little value to the big league clubs according to the opinion of prominent magnates. It has been pointed out that the players of the various teams would be scattered to the four points of the compass, and that the baseball part of the game had been adapted to other forms of business; that problems would arise during the re-adjustment period which have never before been met. It is pointed out that the best baseball money will go to make haste slowly. General opinion seems to support the idea that a new and better order of professional baseball will come forth at the proper time but that much of this advantage would be lost if the big leagues rushed blindly back to the game at the first hint of an opening.

Sport Snap Shots

MORRIS MILLER

The attitude of the big league baseball magnates and players the past few months has been the subject of much discussion by baseball writers all over the country—including yours truly.

When I sized up the situation as one reflecting on the sport and one in which I was looking at it from the viewpoint of the American soldier in the trenches.

Johnny Evers has written home concerning the baseball situation abroad. The famous diamond star has sized up the situation, in a letter to Hugh Fullerton, author and friend of Johnny's. Having battled with Hugh's baseball problems both as constant and later as judge we feel privileged to reprint the letter. Here it is for your consideration.

"Everything is going fine and I'm getting together a team to tour through all the camps and base hospitals back of the fighting line. We expect to have players assigned to us by Gen. Pershing and begin the tour about the middle of September. The team as now planned will be made up of Hank Gowdy, catcher; Lambeth of Cleveland, catcher; Smith of Brooklyn, pitcher; Sherrill of Brooklyn, pitcher; Cudger of Detroit, pitcher; Bates of Philadelphia Athletics, third base; and Monoskey, Rice, Prash and Benny Knut, if he gets home by that time in the out field. We will play pickup teams at the various camps, travel in automobiles and sleep in tents.

outstanding O.P.'s. I found here among our soldiers to the world's series champions or an all-star team coming over from the states was so pronounced that I sent McGraw a cable not to start. 'The men here are better against the players who are staying at home and hunting shipyard work and they are more particularly strong for Ty Cobb or Matty, to say nothing of Percy Haughton getting commissions as GAS EX-PORTS. Baseball has got to be reorganized from top to bottom, might as well close up shop."

Evers is one of the most sane men in baseball history except when arguing with an umpire—and his word amounts to considerable.

Ray Demmitt pulled a real come-back with the St. Louis Browns this year and his willingness to work was a source of pleasure to the management. When the Browns were shy on pitchers he offered to try his hand at it if needed. It wouldn't have been his first effort in the box and he's quite proud of a game he once pitched for the White Sox.

It was on the training trip and the White Sox squad paused at Las Vegas for a clash with the home club there. The Sox, having already played a large string of battles, were only a scant few to begin with, and these had been used up in the hard affairs with the Los Angeles and Venice clubs.

"I'll pitch this game today," said Demmitt. "I'm not much of a pitcher, but I think I can get the ball near the plate if you fellows are willing to shag it a little."

His offer was, thankfully accepted, and he had the Las Vegas batters all but stopped. They had an idea he was a young phenom, and kept on foot free while they hit few balls and were hit as far as the out field, and Las Vegas still remembers Demmitt as a great pitcher.

Use the glassed ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

WALWORTH

Walworth, Oct. 7.—Mrs. Ella Behrens of Zenda and children spent Thursday in Walworth.

Miss Gertrude Winkham is working in Harvard for Mrs. Minier. Glen Hallad has moved his family to the L. Phillips tenant house and Miss Hallad will work for E. J. Watts.

Mrs. C. Daily made a business trip to Harvard Saturday.

Marcus Peters is home from Chicago for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle D. Roban of Evanston were week end guests at the home of his parents.

Miss Anna Cameron of Chicago is visiting Mrs. C. P. Lawton.

Mrs. Minnie Marshall spent the week end in Chicago. Mrs. Van Line helped at the hotel during her absence.

Mrs. Chas. Fritz of Savannah, Ill., is a guest at the G. B. Edington home.

Mrs. Mattie Downing is numbered among the sick.

Mrs. John Behrens of Zenda spent Saturday with Mrs. Charles Behrens.

Dr. G. W. Curtis has received a call to report at Camp Riley, Oct. 15.

The game of football played in the big league clubs according to the opinion of prominent magnates.

It has been pointed out that the players of the various teams would be scattered to the four points of the compass, and that the baseball part of the game had been adapted to other forms of business; that problems would arise during the re-adjustment period which have never before been met.

It is pointed out that the best baseball money will go to make haste slowly. General opinion seems to support the idea that a new and better order of professional baseball will come forth at the proper time but that much of this advantage would be lost if the big leagues rushed blindly back to the game at the first hint of an opening.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

Mrs. J. W. Trousdale spent Saturday in Juda.

Mrs. T. A. Kingman and Mr. Regg spent Sunday in Monroe, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Keen.

Miss Ellis of Plattville was the guest of Miss Wheeler and departed Saturday.

Miss Bertha Mayors of Beloit spent Saturday here with relatives.

Miss Dorothy Stabler, who has been attending business college at Beloit, came home from that city Friday, since which time she has been quite sick.

Miss Sarah Peppers is reported as being sick with the prevailing epidemic.

Stanley Swartz of Chicago spent Sunday at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Swartz.

Miss Anna Cameron of Chicago is visiting Mrs. C. P. Lawton.

Mrs. Minnie Marshall spent the week end in Chicago. Mrs. Van Line helped at the hotel during her absence.

Mrs. Chas. Fritz of Savannah, Ill., is a guest at the G. B. Edington home.

Mrs. Mattie Downing is numbered among the sick.

Mrs. John Behrens of Zenda spent Saturday with Mrs. Charles Behrens.

Dr. G. W. Curtis has received a call to report at Camp Riley, Oct. 15.

The game of football played in the big league clubs according to the opinion of prominent magnates.

It has been pointed out that the players of the various teams would be scattered to the four points of the compass, and that the baseball part of the game had been adapted to other forms of business; that problems would arise during the re-adjustment period which have never before been met.

It is pointed out that the best baseball money will go to make haste slowly. General opinion seems to support the idea that a new and better order of professional baseball will come forth at the proper time but that much of this advantage would be lost if the big leagues rushed blindly back to the game at the first hint of an opening.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

The Gazette is for sale in Walworth at Booth's Drug Store.

Milton News

Milton, Oct. 6.—W. M. Davis and wife of Chicago motored here Wednesday. Mr. Davis will go to San Diego, Calif., the coming winter and engage in Y. M. C. A. work.

Rev. M. A. Drew of Orfordville was in town Thursday.

The village board has appointed Miss Rice village treasurer, vice Rev. M. A. Drew, resigned.

Mrs. W. R. Hood of Mineral Point is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Babcock.

Twelve boxes of shoes and clothing for the relief of Belgian sufferers were delivered at the Red Cross headquarters one day last week.

Harmon Bullis of Milwaukee has been enjoying a vacation here.

The King's Daughters held their October meeting with Mrs. T. L. Stewart Monday evening, Oct. 7.

W. V. I. club meets with Mrs. W. E. Rogers, Thursday, Oct. 10.

F. G. Borden, who is taking treatment at More hospital for neuritis, is improving and can move his legs and feet to a limited extent.

W. C. T. U. meets with Mrs. P. A. Clarke, Tuesday afternoon.

Rev. W. D. Burdick of Dunellen, N. J., has been visiting his daughter and Milton relatives and friends the past week.

Dr. M. L. Brown of Ft. Atkinson transacted business here on Thursday.

Miss Esther Crandall is at Elk Point, S. D., visiting her brother, Percy, and wife.

Miss Leta Lanphere has charge of nut-shell and fruit-pit collecting for gas masks. Do your bit and save some for her.

T. J. Jeffrey is a neuritis victim.

Mrs. E. J. Wiegler spent several days in Rockford, Ill., last week visiting relatives.

Mrs. C. L. Shumway transacted millinery business in Milwaukee last week.

house on Monday evening, Oct. 14. Miss Hannah Stangen is teacher, Rev. C. J. Wiegler and Chas. Taylor will speak. There will be community music and other exercises at the school.

T. J. Taylor transacted business in Janesville on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ashby received a letter from their son Stanley, on Saturday, stating that he has arrived at St. John's Island. That his wounded arm was still bothering him was stated and that the War Department had decided it best to send him to the States.

Orfordville, Oct. 5.—A patriotic meeting was held in the village on Friday evening, which was well attended. Owing to a short circuit which prevented the lighting of the school auditorium, the meeting was held at the Odd Fellows Hall. The music was under the direction of Mesdames Tomlin and Butters with a duet by Marion Howe and Marie Gunstead and a song by the Boy Scouts. The addresses were made by Rev. M. A. Drew and Chas. Taylor.

The fire bell sounded about one o'clock Saturday afternoon and it was learned that the fire had started at the sorghum mill west of the village, on the Gundersen Williamson farm. It started in a pile of crushed cane and promised for a time to spread into the adjoining fields and woods. Several members of the local fire company, armed automobiles and went to the place but as the fire was later confined to the pile of cane, they returned without using any apparatus.

There will be a patriotic meeting at the Spring Valley Corners School house on Monday evening, Oct. 14. Miss Hannah Stangen is teacher, Rev. C. J. Wiegler and Chas. Taylor will speak. There will be community music and other exercises at the school.

T. J. Taylor transacted business in Janesville on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ashby received a letter from their son Stanley, on Saturday, stating that he has arrived at St. John's Island. That his wounded arm was still bothering him was stated and that the War Department had decided it best to send him to the States.

Orfordville, Oct. 5.—A patriotic meeting was held in the village on Friday evening, which was well attended. Owing to a short circuit which prevented the lighting of the school auditorium, the meeting was held at the Odd Fellows Hall. The music was under the direction of Mesdames Tomlin and Butters with a duet by Marion Howe and Marie Gunstead and a song by the Boy Scouts. The addresses were made by Rev. M. A. Drew and Chas. Taylor.

The fire bell sounded about one o'clock Saturday afternoon and it was learned that the fire had started at the sorghum mill west of the village, on the Gundersen Williamson farm. It started in a pile of crushed cane and promised for a time to spread into the adjoining fields and woods. Several members of the local fire company, armed automobiles and went to the place but as the fire was later confined to the pile of cane, they returned without using any apparatus.

There will be a patriotic meeting at the Spring Valley Corners School

Brodhead News</

The Janesville Gazette

New Bldg. 200-201 E. Milwaukee St.

ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT JANESVILLE, WIS., AS SECOND CLASS MAIL MATTER.

BUSINESS OFFICE OPEN SATURDAY EVENING.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.
By carrier in advance.
Janesville 60c. 6 Mo. $3.50. 1 Yr. $6.50.
Rural Routes 60c. 6 Mo. $3.50. 1 Yr. $6.50.
Rock Co. and
County Territory 60c. 6 Mo. $3.50. 1 Yr. $6.50.
By Mail 60c. 6 Mo. $3.50. 1 Yr. $6.50.
Including subscription overseas to men in U. S. Service.

This newspaper is a member of the Wisconsin Publishers' Association and pledges its uncompromising loyalty to our government in this war.

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for publication of all news dispatches received by it or for other news published herein.

OVER THE TOP.

Never before in the history of any drive have so many men and women worn the Liberty Loan badge previous to the actual starting of the drive as are being worn today. This signifies that the work of the various ward and district committees is going to be easy to pick up the stragglers. The following suggestion and urgent situation are in order just now. Read them and you who have not subscribed do so at once.

Here are a few short epigrams from the "Taxpayers' Magazine" that are to the point:

Liberty Bonds or German taxes. Buy over here to win over there. It's billions for defense or billions for indemnity.

For each and freedom; buy bonds. A bond starker is the Kaiser's backer.

A man who won't lend is the Kaiser's friend.

The more bonds you buy the fewer boys will die.

Let all get on the bond wagon. Wear your old clothes and buy Liberty Bonds.

Liberty Bonds or German bondage. "Come across" or the Kaiser will. The soldier grows you must lend. If you can't fight, your money can. Freedom buy bonds; slaves wear them.

Put the "pay" into patriotism. Bonds speak louder than words.

"AN HONORABLE PEACE"

Emperor William issues an address to his soldiers and sailors and states that Germany is willing to accept peace, but that it must be an honorable peace.

Prince Maximilian, his new official mouthpiece, like the proverbial broom that always sweeps clean, announces he has directed to President Wilson, through the Swiss government, the announcement that, based on the President's address to congress August 1st, and later in an address in New York, September 27th, ideas had been set forth for a peace which Germany could accept.

Over on the fighting front the German soldier, when cornered, instead of fighting like the old Kaiser's troops and crying "Kamerad" and when his unsuspecting opponent approaches he seeks to blow him up with a hand grenade or shoots him down. Can we make an honorable peace with such an enemy?

When the hosts of Germany swept over poor, unfortunate Belgium and over northern France they not only ravaged the country, destroyed the buildings, looted the inhabitants, but like savages who knew not God or the rights of man, murdered the aged, ravaged the women and girls, mutilated the youths, and now the boast of Berlin talks of an "honorable peace."

Exhausted Poland, outraged Serbia, desolated Russia, all are evidences of the need for an "honorable peace." What peace could be honorable with a nation that has wrought the destruction that considers a broken treaty a mere scrap of paper? With a nation of idol-worshippers, disciples of the God of War, there is no peace possible but one of obliteration.

Did Germany seek peace when the Lusitania was sunk? No. Did Germany seek peace when its army in the west front drove the allies to the walls of Paris? No. Did Germany seek peace when it had disrupted Russia? No. Did Germany seek peace when Italy was driven back to its second line of defense? No.

But Germany did start a peace talk when the English forces in Palestine took valuable territory from the Turks. Germany did talk peace when Bulgaria was given back by the allies in exchange and asked for peace. Austria, the outpost for the Huns, talked peace when internal dissensions and the Italian drive made possible a revolution that would end the dual empire of the Hapsburgs.

Peace was talked when the allies landed in Russia to undo the work of the Hun. Germany had asked in the land of the Czar. Peace is now talked when the Huns are being driven out of northern France and Belgium, back across the Rhine into Germany, fighting on their own soil. Fighting with their backs to the wall as it were, fighting a losing fight. Then they talk an honorable peace.

Rock county and Janesville has said its toll in this fighting. The death toll grows daily, the severely wounded are numbered by the tens and twenties, and the missing in action becoming more numerous as days go on. Wisconsin is standing the brunt of the fighting over these three days. The thirty-second division, composed of Wisconsin and Michigan troops, has long been in the fighting. The Eighty-sixth division—the Black Hawks—recently landed in France, are now in the trenches, as William Joyce, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Joyce, writes: "Five times over the top and still whole."

These are the sentiments of our fighting boys and they should have consideration when it comes to an "honorable peace." Let these men who have come in contact with the "Huns" and all their devilry, make the peace terms, and be sure they are not working "Kamerad" when written.

Meanwhile more power to the boys over there. Let there be no let-up in war preparation. Buy Liberty bonds and be ready for a year or two more of war, for this talk of an "honorable peace" is like the cry of "Kamerad."

When Germany starts calling for peace just stop and remember how many times the soldiers of the Huns called "Kamerad" and threw up their hands, and then knifed your brother, my friend, your son and husband, and now they seek an honorable peace. Pah! There is not even honor among the German murderers and thieves.

WAKE UP, JANESVILLE!

Wake up, Janesville, and realize the opportunity that faces you. The General Motors Corporation is erecting a huge structure here, with more to follow, and it means an influx of population such as this city has not expected for many a day. Wake up and be prepared for it. This "chamber of commerce" is the natural means of outlet for this action and the secretary, Mr. Green, is a live wire and ready to aid every manufacturer, every business man, every individual citizen, one and all, on what is expected of them in this great drive for a bigger and better city. The various plans of the Chamber of Commerce for civic improvement and betterment are so wide in their scope, so diverse in their various branches that they would be hard to enumerate. Meanwhile avail yourself of the wonderful opportunity of obtaining information by consulting Mr. Green. Also do not forget the city is on the verge of a boom and be prepared for this emergency when it comes. Wake up, Janesville, and look the situation straight in the face.

The response that Janesville citizens have given to all demands of the war and to the civil requirements is most gratifying. The Janesville Chapter was the first one to make the appeal and the money raised amply repaid the effort to create the fund. It shows civic pride and patriotism, this keeping open the rest room for the mothers, wives and brothers of our soldiers during these war days.

No use to talk German spies working in the various soldier training camps when the numerous deaths from the "flu" are reported, when you stop and consider that, proportionately, the death rate in the military camps is less than in civilian life. This talk of German spies and German germs is being stretched a bit too far.

Dame Nature has been most good to us this year and the plentiful crops that have been harvested are a sign that even in war times we may expect to be fed as Elijah was fed by the ravens.

War's demands are numerous, but not half as great as those made upon the boys who actually are offering their lives in the cause of a world's democracy. Just stop and consider that when you make out your Liberty loan check.

Now that winter is coming on and the fuel problem is again a question, why not start a crusade to burn wood and organize a few "wood-chopping" teams, put up a prize and set them at work.

Keep out of doors, eat plain food, avoid stimulants, take exercise, and if taken sick call a physician and follow his instructions. That is the doctrine of the specialists on the "flu."

The twenty-seventh of the month looks a long way off to some people who want to catch up that hour's sleep they lost when the clocks were turned back last spring.

Never in the history of the city has Janesville been so prosperous as regards business as at present. All lines of business proclaim it and bank reports show a decided gain.

The good news from the battle fronts should in no way lessen the contributions to our war fund by the sale of Liberty bonds.

Playing bridge in overcoats is a sure sign that the players are devotees of the game, even though it be on a gas-oliness Sunday.

ON THE SPUR of the MOMENT

ROY K. ROULSTON

The best bet about any "best seller" is that the hero's name will be Jim and the heroine's will be Diana. They will meet in France, get married, and start another war.

OUR READERS BEST INTO PRINT.
Mr. A. de Camp lives in New York and, strangely enough, is not on any general's list.
The Third and Fourth army corps are commanded by Generals Read and Wright. Of General Rithmeyer is also on the job estimating the Hun casualties. If C. T. Bronx.
If crown prince ever visits us he will feel perfectly at home in the queenborough subway station, which is several feet underground. AMELITA.

Buy another Liberty Bond.

INSPIRATION.
The German has his beer, the Frenchman has his sparkling wine. To help him on to France. The British takes his only a rum. When facing shot and flame, The Yankee has no budget at all. But he gets there just the same.

The Turk has learned at least one word in the German language—"Kamerad."

Now they are making silk stockings out of wool yarn. It looks as though Mr. W. K. efficiency is hitting on all twelve cylinders at last.

If you don't love the Spanish "flu" don't sneeze; and don't chew any gum in public places. Then the microbes won't get you. If you wheeze the word caution.

'Best-Ever' Clothes for Boys

Undoubtedly they are the "Best-ever," too—Priced at $5 to $14 per suit.

Complete stocks of everything the boy needs in wearables.

R. M. Bostwick & Son
Main Street at Number Sixteen South,
Merchants of Fine Clothes.

Of Castilian influenza. You may shake the grim affliction. But the doctors can't tell when.

Sit—When will the war be over? I am anxious to know.—A. W. When we win it. Buy more liberty bonds.

Winter must be at hand. Many Broadway actors have laid aside their light gowns and are now wearing their heavies.

Don't Take Chances With Your Health

The Spanish Influenza is rampant throughout the community and everyone owes it as a duty to society to check it as much as possible in their own home.

One of the best ways to stop it is to use

Smith's Cold Tablets

Keep a box in the house and when you feel a cold coming on, start sneezing or feel feverish take a couple of these tablets and follow directions as printed on each box and you will check the influenza before it gets the upper hand of your system.

Smith's Cold Tablets have been sold for years and are absolutely reliable. Price per box 25c.

SMITH'S PHARMACY
The Rexall Store
Kodaks and Kodak Supplies.

OH, YOU BEAUTIFUL LADY.
CIRCUMSTANCES compel me to sell my beautiful lady's diamond pin. Address X. Y. Z.—Want ad. in Detroit Daily News.

Here's what it really is, according to Job Hodges: "Efficiency is the manner in which a man would run your business, if you'd let him."

Bargains in most everything are listed in the classified columns.

WHO'S WHO in the Day's News

GEN. W. A. BETHEL.
Gen. W. A. Bethel is the present judge advocate of the American forces in France. He went over with Gen. Pershing and was made brig-

dier general last October. Gen. Bethel is 52 years of age and an Ohio by birth. He was graduated from West Point in 1889, and was a lieutenant in the Fourth and later in the Third artillery until the Spanish war broke out. Meanwhile, he has four times completed a legal education and was made master of laws by George Washington university in 1894.

He served during the Spanish war as captain of volunteers, and was made captain in the regular army in 1901.

He was judge advocate with the rank of major in 1903, a colonel in 1917, and is now a brigadier general.

Public Places Closed.
Racine.—The board of health today ordered that all public, parochial and private schools and all places of amusement be closed for a period of two weeks beginning Monday morning in order to prevent the spread of Spanish influenza from which three Racine persons have died.

Cars must not be crowded and no more passengers than can be accommodated with seats will be permitted.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

dier general last October. Gen. Bethel is 52 years of age and an Ohio by birth. He was graduated from West Point in 1889, and was a lieutenant in the Fourth and later in the Third artillery until the Spanish war broke out. Meanwhile, he has four times completed a legal education and was made master of laws by George Washington university in 1894.

He served during the Spanish war as captain of volunteers, and was made captain in the regular army in 1901.

He was judge advocate with the rank of major in 1903, a colonel in 1917, and is now a brigadier general.

Public Places Closed.
Racine.—The board of health today ordered that all public, parochial and private schools and all places of amusement be closed for a period of two weeks beginning Monday morning in order to prevent the spread of Spanish influenza from which three Racine persons have died.

Cars must not be crowded and no more passengers than can be accommodated with seats will be permitted.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Rehberg's

A Store is Known by the Customers It keeps

Rehberg's customers know these two important facts: They know what they want—They know how to get it.

We are proud of the kind of storekeeping that holds customers like that.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Use the classified ads if you have anything to sell; they will surely sell it for you.

Matinee Daily 2:30
Evening 7:30 and 9

Bulgaria Has Begged An Armistice—Austria Begs Peace Anew—Turkey is About to Capitulate

“CRASHING THROUGH TO BERLIN”

Don't hesitate—doubt—wonder or consider—make up your mind to let nothing prevent you from seeing this mightiest war spectacle—the first and only complete record of any war filmed from authentic sources—there never was anything like it. You see with your own eyes more than any man or group of men could see or write or tell of the activities of a whole world at war.

Evenings, children, 15c; adults 30c.

Whitewater News

The Gazette is for sale in Sharon by Lyle Burton. Deliveries will be ewriter, for this is the first time at, dreadful fox has caught our little abbit, and goodness me! Supposing e eats him up right away before e can help him! But Daddy

Contribution acknowledged by A. E. Matheson, publicity chairman Fourth Liberty Loan.

Racine Dry on Sunday.
Racine.—Racine will have dry Sundays beginning with Oct. 13. This

No State Fair.
Milwaukee.—There will be no s

"I managed to get a furlough explained. 'Isn't the lamp rather high?'"

Whitewater, Oct. 7.—The Wisconsin Congregational association will hold its annual meeting convention at the local Congregational church here this week and speakers of national reputation will take part in the program. The opening session will take place this evening at 7:30 with a praise service, followed by an address of welcome by Dr. Randolph, the acting pastor of the church. The session will be held by Rev. and R. P. Hutton.

MYERS THEATRE.

After eight months of unremitting

MYERS THEATRE.

After eight months of unremitting activity at the southern California studios of William Fox, "Salome" with Theda Bara in the title role, has been completed and is to be presented here today and Tuesday and Wednesday at the Myers theatre by the producer personally. "Salome" is described as a new development of the spectacle picture. Massiveness of effect is not to smother dramatic interest, however.

BROOKLYN

Brooklyn, Oct. 5.—Mrs. P. A. Haynes held a sale of her household goods on Saturday afternoon. The Brooklyn high school ball team was defeated by the Oregon team at Oregon Friday afternoon with a score of 12 to 14. The Epworth league gave a fare-

The Daily Novelette

VICTORY

(Synopsis of preceding chapters.) Emery Doods, a soulfully sensitive young man, is madly in love with Asbena Plunkis, but he detests the army of wild billies, who perfume that Asbena is very partial to. Each time he gets close enough to propose, the overpowering fumes of wild billies revolt and unnerves him. Once engaged to her, he knows, he can usurp the high position of Asbena's father and bid her to use the noxious scent, but now, through natural delicacy and a faultless sense of etiquette, he is powerless. After the nineteenth unsuccessful attempt to weather the fumes, he is strong enough to propose, he gives up in despair and enlists in the army. The smell of gas bombs is almost refreshing after the wild billies, and besides, he has his gas mask (a protection).

Conclusion

"Emery!" cried Asbena, giddy with gladness.

"I managed to get a furlough," he explained. "Isn't the lamp turned out yet?"

"Rather high?" she turned it very low.

"Asbena," he said, quickly, though in a strangely muffled voice, "will you be my wife?"

"Will?" she interrupted, and screamed.

For it was the first time she had ever kissed a gas mask.

The End

Heart and Home Problems

BY ELIZABETH THOMPSON

LETTERS MAY BE ADDRESSED TO MRS. THOMPSON, IN CARE OF THE GAZETTE

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a young married woman with a baby. My husband is earning fairly good pay, but we have heavy expenses, and so we found it necessary to take a roomer to help pay our rent. For three months we have had a man in our home who is a gentleman in every respect.

My husband has the privilege of working evenings too, and by doing so he can earn more money. Several times our roomer has been home in the evening and he has come down stairs and we have played the piano and sung together. One evening the roomer and I were sitting on the bench together and he was playing the piano while I was holding baby, who was not well and cried when I put her down. The roomer came down stairs and when I invited her to come in she refused. She telephoned my husband and told him he had better watch his wife.

My husband believes me and says that he does not think there was anything between the roomer and me, but that I should be careful of appearances. The roomer has been here for two weeks. I know that he would like to stay, but is going for my sake. What can I say to him that would convince him it would be all right to remain here?

PERPLEXED.
It will be best to let the roomer go. Although your husband will try to trust you, scandal has wings and in his car and as long as the other man is in your home he will have a secret worry. There is no reason why you should not get another roomer, however.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: In summer I always wear white kid gloves and in winter I wear white kid when I go to church or dress up. White kid is so expensive now that I cannot afford to buy them and send them to a cleaner to wear out in cleaning. Is there any good cleaner I can use at home? With care I think I could make them last longer.

ECONOMY.
To clean white kid gloves put them in a dish and cover. Squeeze the gloves between the hands frequently to allow the gloves to become thoroughly soaked. When they look clean rinse in clean gasoline and hang the gloves up out of doors. Do the cleaning at least a day before using so that they may be thoroughly odorous before wearing.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: There is a boy in my class at school who seems to come to see me several nights a week and when I let him sit in the parlor till 10 or 11 and lets me do all the talking. In all the time I have known him he has never said one place or spent one cent on me. He also telephones me every night and I have to talk to him when I would rather be doing something else. What can I do to get rid of him?

PESTERED.
Do not let him come to see you when he asks, and when you are busy and he telephones, say so.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am in terrible trouble. The boy I was going with was drafted and he wanted me to marry him before he went to camp. I was sure I loved him and so I did. Now he has been sent home from camp as physically unfit. I find that I do not love him and cannot endure to be his wife.

MISERABLE WIFE.
You and your husband should separate at once since your union is not one of love. Later you may find that you have more for him than you realize now. There was a glimmer about marrying a soldier which appeared to you, and a great disappointment in having your hero return home. If, after a year apart, you still desire separation, I think you should get a divorce.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Is it all right for a stenographer to accept candy from her employer? I am working for a married man who is very good to me and when I work overtime or do anything extra he always brings me candy the next day. Do you think this is proper?

M. H. P.
It is all right for a stenographer to accept candy from her employer if it is given in the right spirit. If you are sure that your employer is not learning to care for you in a way he shouldn't, there is no reason why he should not accept the candy which is given as a reward.

EVERYDAY ETIQUETTE

When a young woman sits on the veranda of a hotel, a bench in a park or other such public place, she should be careful to avoid anything in her manner which might attract attention.

JOHN S. A private American soldier is always introduced as Mr. Smith.

MISS M. A. H. Mourning for a brother is usually the same as for a parent, and is worn for a year, but present conditions are changing mourning customs to a marked degree and it is a matter of personal taste whether one cares to wear it at all. A simple black hat with a black face veil is sufficient in your case.

Household Hints

MENU HINT.
Breakfast. Cream. Sliced Peaches. Maple Syrup. French Toast (Rye).
Luncheon. German Crackers. Baked Apples. Oatmeal Bread. Honey. Milk.
Dinner. Dried Beef and Gravy. Succotash. Mashed Potatoes. Brown Bread. Butter. Sliced Cucumbers.
Apple Sauce (sweetened with syrup). Tapioca Pudding. Coffee. Oatmeal Cookies.

TRIED RECIPES.
Tapioca Pudding. (from above menu)—One pint milk, one-half cup tapioca which has been soaked overnight, pinch of salt, one-half cup sugar or maple syrup, two eggs. Place milk, sweetener, tapioca and salt in double boiler and heat to the boiling point. Stir the beaten egg yolks into this and cook until the consistency of thick cream. Take from the fire and spread the stiffly beaten egg whites over the top. Place in the oven until a delicate brown on top.
Kind Pickles.—For the rinds from a medium sized melon trim off the green rind and most of the red part. Cut in pieces to suit your taste. Put in kettle, put in two cups of water and one of vinegar. Let boil, turning often with a fork until they are a little soft and begin to look clear. Take out and put in a colander to drain. Take as much clear vinegar as you think will cover them, make it rich like syrup with sugar, put in two tablespoons of ground cinnamon, put in your rinds and boil for 15 or 20 minutes and can hot. These rinds chopped fine and added to mince meat improve it, and the vinegar of them is better than beef clear. For the mince meat. Use no salt.

SOUPS.
Stock Soup.—Stock is a name given to any clear soup made from fresh meat, or left-over materials in the house. To each shin or leg of beef allow four quarts of water. Simmer gently for three hours, then add 12 cloves, a chopped carrot, one onion, a leek, a salt teaspoon of celery, or a little chopped leaves of celery, a turnip. If you have it, a little thyme. Strain one hour longer, strain and stand aside to quickly cool. When cool, skim every particle of fat from the surface, and the stock will be a thick, clear jelly. If made from left-overs it may not be a jelly, and will not be clear. This is the foundation of all soups.

Every Day Tomato Soup.—Put one can of tomatoes, a pint of water, a slice of onion, a bay leaf and a blade of mace over the fire in a sauce pan. Add, when they reach boiling point, two level teaspoons of cornstarch, a little cold water, a tablespoon of salt and a saltspoon of black pepper. Stir until it begins to boil, and simmer gently five minutes. Strain into the strainer, add a tablespoon of butter and serve.
Tomato Soups are usually served with tiny squares of toasted bread called croutons.

Brown Soup.—Put two tablespoons of short and a chopped onion in a sauce pan; shake until the onion is slightly brown. Add two tablespoons of flour; stir until the flour is well mixed and add one quart of cream. Let this boil five minutes, add a teaspoon of kitchen bouquet and a pintable seasoning of salt and pepper. Strain into another sauce pan. Add two slices of bread, broken into small pieces, and stir until each piece of bread is saturated with egg. Throw this on top of the soup, cover, boil one minute and serve.

FORETHOUGHT OF LADY HELPS FOOD MINISTRATION

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Salt Lake City, Oct. 7.—It was owing to the forethought and energy of a woman that the United States food administration was enabled to obtain recently 175,000 bushels of wheat from the relief society of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (Mormons). This store of grain had been saved up against a possible famine and was made available to the government in a time of great need.

The woman who was chiefly instrumental in saving up the wheat is Mrs. Emmeline B. Wells, president of the church relief society. For 42 years she carried out the wishes of Brigham Young in the storing of the grain. Young, then president of the Mormon church, taught his followers that day does not come without a famine and he urged her to advocate saving grain. Through the medium of a paper known as the "Woman's Exponent," which Mrs. Wells edited for years, she preached the storing of grain by the women of the church relief societies. The original work began through the cleaning of the wheat fields and funds annually until in later years funds of the society were invested in wheat, which was sold when prices were high, the money being re-invested when the prices were low. Mrs. Wells traveled to every place in the west where members of the Mormon church had colonized, preaching the storing of grain.

Gray Hair
Use
Hair Health
A preparation for restoring the color to gray or faded hair, for removing dandruff and as a hairdresser. It is not a dye. Generous sized bottles at 50c. each, ready to use. This Day Co., Newark, N. J.

SIDE TALKS

—BY—
RUTH CAMERON

KEEPING UP APPEARANCES.

The question of dress was solved by the expedient of getting along comfortably on inadequate means, by not attempting to associate with people to whose society their brains and cultivation gave them the right—that is to say, those families of La Chance whose incomes were from three to five times that of college professors.

—Confid.
The above is a description of the way in which a college professor and his family refused to allow their lives to be made miserable by the struggle to keep up a large appearance on a small salary.

What shall I do?
It gives one new heart to think that there are people with the courage to solve their social problems that way (even people in a story) and that they find happiness in so doing.

How few things there are in the world that cause one more unhappiness than anxiety about one's social position!

Think of the Sacrifices We Make.
Keeping up appearances that we have no right to keep up is the stoic before which peace of mind, comfort of body, ideals, unselfishness, and many more of the realities of life are ruthlessly sacrificed.

—And what does one get out of it all—only the feeling sweetness of social pleasures, the prick of envy, and the unrest of forever unsatisfied ambition.

Mind you, I do not mean that one should be indifferent to the pleasures of social intercourse. Intercourse with friends whose society one enjoys, not because they have social position, but because they are congenial and stimulating and worth while, is one of the realities of life.

The thing I condemn is the struggle for social position—per se.

Wash the Socks You Knit With GRANDMA Make them soft and fluffy. No rosin in GRANDMA to shrink them and make them stiff and hard. Use GRANDMA sars for washing wool socks.

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

No More Rubbing

"When Grandma Comes The Dirt Must Fly"

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

5c and Larger Size Packages

HEALTH TALKS

BY WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

LETTERS MAY BE ADDRESSED TO DR. BRADY, IN CARE OF THE GAZETTE

Let an ordinary baby launch a money little frolic. Mrs. Grundy thinks it teething, but Sairey calls it colic. Grandma hints it may be worms, but the doctor never calls it, for he isn't called at all. Everybody hates a baby—as long as there is hope. When everybody feels convinced that there is no hope, then the poor little thing is turned over to the doctor. If we do ultimately attain civilization, perhaps we shall have a law against baby-baiting, or at least a law that will or should carry "double" penalties when the crime is committed by parents or guardians, who are supposed to love the baby or at least to give the baby a fighting chance to survive. To my mind there is nothing so contemptible and mean as this widespread custom of experimenting on babies—a custom which betrays the ignorance, irresponsibility and abject cruelty of parents. There are all grades of intelligence, and the baby-baiting habit becomes steadily less popular as you ascend the scale of intelligence, till you attain the peak, where parents know enough not to try experiments on the baby at all.

Ignorance is the chief factor in the shockingly high death rate among young babies in America. This is why the health authorities in the country are at present carrying out a campaign to save the seventh baby who are guardians of young babies the rudiments of proper care. Through ignorance we kill off one out of seven babies in the first year of life. A seven-to-one shot may possibly be a fair ratio to gamble on in a horse race. It is not a good gamble when a baby's life is at stake.

Parents or guardians who experiment on babies to experiment on all babies should be prosecuted and punished just as vigorously as are parents who fail to provide medical attention for their sick children. The crime is rather worse than neglect.

There is no possible excuse for pouring down a baby's throat any alleged medicine for "worms" or "teething" without medical advice.

Parents who mistreat babies in this way are to mean and too dangerous to have the care and responsibility of preserving young lives.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Leakage of the Heart.
Q. What is the cause of leakage of the heart? (Mrs. A.)
A. Leakage of the heart is a disease always hereditary. (Mrs. A.)
Q. I have a child entering the black stream through diseased teeth, such as neglected (decayed) teeth, inflammation of the heart and produce inflammation there (endocarditis), which may be painless and easily overlooked, so-called inflammatory rheumatism. Unless the doctor examines the heart at each visit, if the inflammation happens to involve the region of a heart valve, the leakage of the heart, the heart valve, after the inflammation has disappeared, may distort the valve, so that it is no longer can close perfectly. If a heart beat, and in this way there would be more or less backward leakage of the blood after each heart beat. This leakage may distort the valve, so that it is no longer can close perfectly. So far as I know, heart disease is never inherited.

Diet Lists Seldom Apply.
Please give a diet list for one who has diabetes. How about barley, or peas or beans, and milk? (P. F.)
A. Answer.—Diabetes is a functional deficiency or incapacity to utilize carbohydrate (starches and sugars) in the food. No diet list applies. What would be quite suitable for Mr. A. and what Mr. B. might have a dangerous amount of fat on a vegetable diet. Each individual case according to the patient's ability to metabolize carbohydrates, as determined by repeated urine analyses. The foods you mention may be used in limited quantities if the patient is allowed any carbohydrates. Send recent stamped addressed envelope for suggestions.

Hernia Not Inherited.
A man has a hernia and a hernia in his child. Should he marry? He is likely to become a father. Would his children be sure to inherit the rupture? (B. M.)
A. Answer.—Hernia (rupture, breach) is not hereditary, though irrespective of surgical conditions a certain number of children are born with hernia or with a defect which permits hernia to develop in childhood. The condition has nothing to do with virility.

"And I tell you, John, I don't believe people are so narrow hearted as all that," Edith exclaimed.
"You don't know, Edith. You forget how terribly notorious these people were!"
"It's what they are that I care about," she cried. "And for what they are I shall stand by them and see that their child isn't punished for something their parents were before he was born! They have more than squared accounts with the world! I don't believe the women and men of this town will feel otherwise. If they do—"

Their telephone rang.
Edith answered it.
"Is this you, Mrs. Ferrol?" a woman's voice asked excitedly. "This is Mrs. Carter speaking. Oh, have you heard who your neighbors are? A man came down to the club just now and has told us all about them. He's the brother of the man with whose wife—"

"I know all about it, Mrs. Carter!" Edith said. "But it really does not concern us, does it?"
"Why, good heavens, Mrs. Ferrol, our children will meet their child!"

"My boy is playing with their child at this minute," Edith said quietly. "There was a pause. Then Mrs. Carter's voice resumed coldly.
"Well, Mrs. Ferrol, my Dickie was to come down to your house this afternoon to play with your boy. Under the circumstances, however, if you wish to have your little boy come up to my house—"

"No, Mrs. Carter, I'm afraid Jackie cannot come up to your house. He cannot come up to the Penn boy. Good afternoon!"
Edith turned to her husband.
"You're right, John. But I'm going to stand by the Penns no matter who turns away from them—or from me!"

(To be continued.)

A new supply of attractive literature and folders on travel in the Pacific Northwest has just been received by the Gazette Travel Bureau.

THE STRUGGLE

THE TABOO.
At John Ferrol's words Mrs. Penn turned with a cry to her son. He was standing white and quaking before them.

"Mummy, must Jackie not play with me?" Mrs. Penn moved away again.
Mrs. Penn seized him in her arms and was taking him into the house when Edith stopped her.

"No, Danny," Edith said compassionately. "Jackie will always play with you and you need not move away!"
To Edith's dismay, Mrs. Penn sank to the porch step with the boy in her arms and seizing Edith's hand, while tears streamed down her cheeks.

"I'll never forget you, never all I die," she stammered with quivering lips.
Penn gently raised her to her feet. "She is the kindest woman in the world, Martha," he said. "That's why we mustn't make her pay for her kindness. Her husband doesn't want us to have anything to do with them, so we don't want to cause disagreement between them."

John Ferrol turned irresolutely away.
"It isn't that I personally care," he said lamely. "One must know that the neighborhood will taboo my wife and children."

"John!" Edith cried passionately. "How can you say such a thing?"
Yes, Mrs. Penn was right. Edith said bitterly. "We know it from experience. Those who would befriend us have had to pay for it with the good will of the other neighbors."

"I don't believe it. And I should not care if it turned out to be true," Edith insisted. "My children shall play with Danny!"
The Ferrols said no more to each other until they returned home. Then Ferrol turned to her.

"Edith, what you or I think of the Penns is not the important consideration," he said. "The question is, are you willing to give up the friendship of the whole town for that of the Penns? You will find that it will have to be one or the other."

Easy Washing!

YES, easy, real easy when Grandma helps do it. No more back breaking over a rubbing board—not with Grandma on the job. Grandma gets right down to the bottom of things in a hurry. Dirt just can't hide away when she gets after it.

GRANDMA'S Powdered SOAP

Think of the time and bother and the waste of cutting or chipping bar soap and the rubbing off of a whole bar. There is no reason for that now and, besides, it costs money. It's different with Grandma. You measure out just what you need but no more. It stops waste and saves work. That is real soap economy.

Try this Powdered Soap Today

Your Grocer Has It!

BRIDE of BATTLE

A Romance of the American Army Fighting on the Battlefields of France.

By VICTOR ROUSSEAU

Copyright, 1918, by W. G. Chapman.

"The pace of the fight, pondering over the situation, it seemed to him that the key to the mystery lay with Hartley. Even yet he had not allowed himself to believe Kellerman a traitor. But it was essential that he should find Hartley, and insist upon a confession, both of his motives in watching the Colonel's house, and of those that had brought him to the war department."

Suddenly the telephone interrupted his meditations. A woman's voice at the other end was asking for him.

"Are you quite sure you are Captain Mark Wallace?" It inquired, when he had stated his identity.

"I am as sure as I have ever been," answered Mark.

"Ah, now I recognize you," said the strange voice in a merry ripple of laughter. "And you don't know who I am?"

"If you will state your name—" began Mark patiently.

"Someone who knows that you are in trouble and wants to help you. I'm afraid you won't let me. You seemed to be prejudiced against me when we met before. Well, I am Ada Kenson."

Mark uttered an angry exclamation, which he instantly checked. This might prove the key that he was seeking.

"Come to my house at nine o'clock tonight, unless you are afraid. You will meet nobody but me."

It had been in Mark's mind to look for Hartley in that neighborhood.

"What do you say, Captain Wallace? I can help you very much indeed, and perhaps put things right for you. I am in a position to know a good deal of what is happening behind the scenes."

Mark felt his brain grow as cool as ice. "I'll come, Mrs. Kenson," he answered crisply, and hung up the receiver.

He considered himself with the reflection that he had, at least, nothing to lose. He waited calmly for the appointment, and arrived outside the house promptly. There was no sign of Hartley in the neighborhood.

At his ring Mrs. Kenson herself opened the door, smiled, and showed him into a well-furnished little parlor.

"Sit down, Captain Wallace," she said, indicating a chair.

"You'll wonder who I am and why I asked you to come here," said Mrs. Kenson. "Well, I happen to know quite a good deal about you, Captain Wallace. All your history, in fact, from the time you entered West Point. It is part of my business to know these things."

Mark bowed and waited, expecting something sensational. He was astonished beyond his expectation, however, by Mrs. Kenson's next words.

"Your long and distasteful stay in the West, Captain Wallace, was not wholly the fortune of the military service," she said. "It was expedient that you should stay there, on account

Heal Skin Diseases

It is unnecessary for you to suffer with eczema, blotches, ringworm, rashes and similar skin troubles. A little zeno, obtained at any drug store for 35c, or $1.00 for extra large bottle, and promptly applied will usually give instant relief from itching, burning, and all other skin troubles. It cleanses and soothes the skin and heals quickly and effectively most skin diseases.

Zeno is a wonderful, penetrating, disappearing liquid and is soothing to the most delicate skin. It is not greasy, is easily applied and costs little. Get it today and see all further distress.

The E. W. Rose Co., Cleveland, O.

Whole Family Sick

"All of my six brothers and sisters as well as myself, have suffered since childhood from stomach and liver trouble and bloating. I thought it ran in the family and that I could never be cured. I am, thanks to May's Wonderful Remedy, since taking it nearly a year ago I have been enjoying the best of health and feel like a new person. I have no trouble from anything I eat." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and cures the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. J. P. Baker, Druggist.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with attendant bad breath.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound; mixed with olive oil, you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

PETEY DINK MAKES A SURPRISE FINISH.

of your unfortunate mistake in adopting the late Charles Hampton's child."

Mark rose in protest, collected himself, and sat down again.

"In fact, dear Captain Wallace, you have been the victim of circumstances," went on Mrs. Kenson. "I suppose you know that the world has changed a good deal during your fifteen years of exile? Well, this war, for example, it's a shocking reversal to barbarism, the nations flying at each other's throats, when their difficulties could have been adjusted by a little frank diplomacy. It was a great blow to the financial interests that are working to reconcile the nations and to develop the world's resources. They would do all possible to end it. I am working for them here. I am not telling you any secret, Captain Wallace, because everybody in Washington knows it. I represent the international peace committee, and I have quite a good deal of influence among the senators and representatives—principally the Western ones, Captain."

The frankness and audacity of the disclosure astounded Mark. So this was one center of "they," as Colonel Howard had called the nucleus of Teutonic spies and agents in America.

"We are trying our hardest to prevent America from being dragged into this maelstrom," continued Mrs. Kenson. "You, Captain Wallace, were unfortunate enough to be working on the other side. And—I'm sorry, but a little trap was laid for you and Kellerman. You walked right into it. Major Kellerman, who is a very good friend of mine, acted in complete good faith."

Mark bowed and waited, expecting something sensational. He was astonished beyond his expectation, however, by Mrs. Kenson's next words.

"Your long and distasteful stay in the West, Captain Wallace, was not wholly the fortune of the military service," she said. "It was expedient that you should stay there, on account of your unfortunate mistake in adopting the late Charles Hampton's child."

Mark rose in protest, collected himself, and sat down again.

"In fact, dear Captain Wallace, you have been the victim of circumstances," went on Mrs. Kenson. "I suppose you know that the world has changed a good deal during your fifteen years of exile? Well, this war, for example, it's a shocking reversal to barbarism, the nations flying at each other's throats, when their difficulties could have been adjusted by a little frank diplomacy. It was a great blow to the financial interests that are working to reconcile the nations and to develop the world's resources. They would do all possible to end it. I am working for them here. I am not telling you any secret, Captain Wallace, because everybody in Washington knows it. I represent the international peace committee, and I have quite a good deal of influence among the senators and representatives—principally the Western ones, Captain."

The frankness and audacity of the disclosure astounded Mark. So this was one center of "they," as Colonel Howard had called the nucleus of Teutonic spies and agents in America.

"We are trying our hardest to prevent America from being dragged into this maelstrom," continued Mrs. Kenson. "You, Captain Wallace, were unfortunate enough to be working on the other side. And—I'm sorry, but a little trap was laid for you and Kellerman. You walked right into it. Major Kellerman, who is a very good friend of mine, acted in complete good faith."

Mark bowed and waited, expecting something sensational. He was astonished beyond his expectation, however, by Mrs. Kenson's next words.

"Your long and distasteful stay in the West, Captain Wallace, was not wholly the fortune of the military service," she said. "It was expedient that you should stay there, on account of your unfortunate mistake in adopting the late Charles Hampton's child."

Mark rose in protest, collected himself, and sat down again.

"In fact, dear Captain Wallace, you have been the victim of circumstances," went on Mrs. Kenson. "I suppose you know that the world has changed a good deal during your fifteen years of exile? Well, this war, for example, it's a shocking reversal to barbarism, the nations flying at each other's throats, when their difficulties could have been adjusted by a little frank diplomacy. It was a great blow to the financial interests that are working to reconcile the nations and to develop the world's resources. They would do all possible to end it. I am working for them here. I am not telling you any secret, Captain Wallace, because everybody in Washington knows it. I represent the international peace committee, and I have quite a good deal of influence among the senators and representatives—principally the Western ones, Captain."

The frankness and audacity of the disclosure astounded Mark. So this was one center of "they," as Colonel Howard had called the nucleus of Teutonic spies and agents in America.

"We are trying our hardest to prevent America from being dragged into this maelstrom," continued Mrs. Kenson. "You, Captain Wallace, were unfortunate enough to be working on the other side. And—I'm sorry, but a little trap was laid for you and Kellerman. You walked right into it. Major Kellerman, who is a very good friend of mine, acted in complete good faith."

Mark bowed and waited, expecting something sensational. He was astonished beyond his expectation, however, by Mrs. Kenson's next words.

"Your long and distasteful stay in the West, Captain Wallace, was not wholly the fortune of the military service," she said. "It was expedient that you should stay there, on account of your unfortunate mistake in adopting the late Charles Hampton's child."

Mark rose in protest, collected himself, and sat down again.

"In fact, dear Captain Wallace, you have been the victim of circumstances," went on Mrs. Kenson. "I suppose you know that the world has changed a good deal during your fifteen years of exile? Well, this war, for example, it's a shocking reversal to barbarism, the nations flying at each other's throats, when their difficulties could have been adjusted by a little frank diplomacy. It was a great blow to the financial interests that are working to reconcile the nations and to develop the world's resources. They would do all possible to end it. I am working for them here. I am not telling you any secret, Captain Wallace, because everybody in Washington knows it. I represent the international peace committee, and I have quite a good deal of influence among the senators and representatives—principally the Western ones, Captain."

The frankness and audacity of the disclosure astounded Mark. So this was one center of "they," as Colonel Howard had called the nucleus of Teutonic spies and agents in America.

"We are trying our hardest to prevent America from being dragged into this maelstrom," continued Mrs. Kenson. "You, Captain Wallace, were unfortunate enough to be working on the other side. And—I'm sorry, but a little trap was laid for you and Kellerman. You walked right into it. Major Kellerman, who is a very good friend of mine, acted in complete good faith."

Mark bowed and waited, expecting something sensational. He was astonished beyond his expectation, however, by Mrs. Kenson's next words.

"Your long and distasteful stay in the West, Captain Wallace, was not wholly the fortune of the military service," she said. "It was expedient that you should stay there, on account of your unfortunate mistake in adopting the late Charles Hampton's child."

Mark rose in protest, collected himself, and sat down again.

"In fact, dear Captain Wallace, you have been the victim of circumstances," went on Mrs. Kenson. "I suppose you know that the world has changed a good deal during your fifteen years of exile? Well, this war, for example, it's a shocking reversal to barbarism, the nations flying at each other's throats, when their difficulties could have been adjusted by a little frank diplomacy. It was a great blow to the financial interests that are working to reconcile the nations and to develop the world's resources. They would do all possible to end it. I am working for them here. I am not telling you any secret, Captain Wallace, because everybody in Washington knows it. I represent the international peace committee, and I have quite a good deal of influence among the senators and representatives—principally the Western ones, Captain."

The frankness and audacity of the disclosure astounded Mark. So this was one center of "they," as Colonel Howard had called the nucleus of Teutonic spies and agents in America.

"We are trying our hardest to prevent America from being dragged into this maelstrom," continued Mrs. Kenson. "You, Captain Wallace, were unfortunate enough to be working on the other side. And—I'm sorry, but a little trap was laid for you and Kellerman. You walked right into it. Major Kellerman, who is a very good friend of mine, acted in complete good faith."

Mark bowed and waited, expecting something sensational. He was astonished beyond his expectation, however, by Mrs. Kenson's next words.

"Your long and distasteful stay in the West, Captain Wallace, was not wholly the fortune of the military service," she said. "It was expedient that you should stay there, on account of your unfortunate mistake in adopting the late Charles Hampton's child."

Mark rose in protest, collected himself, and sat down again.

"In fact, dear Captain Wallace, you have been the victim of circumstances," went on Mrs. Kenson. "I suppose you know that the world has changed a good deal during your fifteen years of exile? Well, this war, for example, it's a shocking reversal to barbarism, the nations flying at each other's throats, when their difficulties could have been adjusted by a little frank diplomacy. It was a great blow to the financial interests that are working to reconcile the nations and to develop the world's resources. They would do all possible to end it. I am working for them here. I am not telling you any secret, Captain Wallace, because everybody in Washington knows it. I represent the international peace committee, and I have quite a good deal of influence among the senators and representatives—principally the Western ones, Captain."

The frankness and audacity of the disclosure astounded Mark. So this was one center of "they," as Colonel Howard had called the nucleus of Teutonic spies and agents in America.

"We are trying our hardest to prevent America from being dragged into this maelstrom," continued Mrs. Kenson. "You, Captain Wallace, were unfortunate enough to be working on the other side. And—I'm sorry, but a little trap was laid for you and Kellerman. You walked right into it. Major Kellerman, who is a very good friend of mine, acted in complete good faith."

Mark bowed and waited, expecting something sensational. He was astonished beyond his expectation, however, by Mrs. Kenson's next words.

"Your long and distasteful stay in the West, Captain Wallace, was not wholly the fortune of the military service," she said. "It was expedient that you should stay there, on account of your unfortunate mistake in adopting the late Charles Hampton's child."

Mark rose in protest, collected himself, and sat down again.

"In fact, dear Captain Wallace, you have been the victim of circumstances," went on Mrs. Kenson. "I suppose you know that the world has changed a good deal during your fifteen years of exile? Well, this war, for example, it's a shocking reversal to barbarism, the nations flying at each other's throats, when their difficulties could have been adjusted by a little frank diplomacy. It was a great blow to the financial interests that are working to reconcile the nations and to develop the world's resources. They would do all possible to end it. I am working for them here. I am not telling you any secret, Captain Wallace, because everybody in Washington knows it. I represent the international peace committee, and I have quite a good deal of influence among the senators and representatives—principally the Western ones, Captain."

The frankness and audacity of the disclosure astounded Mark. So this was one center of "they," as Colonel Howard had called the nucleus of Teutonic spies and agents in America.

"We are trying our hardest to prevent America from being dragged into this maelstrom," continued Mrs. Kenson. "You, Captain Wallace, were unfortunate enough to be working on the other side. And—I'm sorry, but a little trap was laid for you and Kellerman. You walked right into it. Major Kellerman, who is a very good friend of mine, acted in complete good faith."

Mark bowed and waited, expecting something sensational. He was astonished beyond his expectation, however, by Mrs. Kenson's next words.

"Your long and distasteful stay in the West, Captain Wallace, was not wholly the fortune of the military service," she said. "It was expedient that you should stay there, on account of your unfortunate mistake in adopting the late Charles Hampton's child."

Mark rose in protest, collected himself, and sat down again.

"In fact, dear Captain Wallace, you have been the victim of circumstances," went on Mrs. Kenson. "I suppose you know that the world has changed a good deal during your fifteen years of exile? Well, this war, for example, it's a shocking reversal to barbarism, the nations flying at each other's throats, when their difficulties could have been adjusted by a little frank diplomacy. It was a great blow to the financial interests that are working to reconcile the nations and to develop the world's resources. They would do all possible to end it. I am working for them here. I am not telling you any secret, Captain Wallace, because everybody in Washington knows it. I represent the international peace committee, and I have quite a good deal of influence among the senators and representatives—principally the Western ones, Captain."

The frankness and audacity of the disclosure astounded Mark. So this was one center of "they," as Colonel Howard had called the nucleus of Teutonic spies and agents in America.

"We are trying our hardest to prevent America from being dragged into this maelstrom," continued Mrs. Kenson. "You, Captain Wallace, were unfortunate enough to be working on the other side. And—I'm sorry, but a little trap was laid for you and Kellerman. You walked right into it. Major Kellerman, who is a very good friend of mine, acted in complete good faith."

Mark bowed and waited, expecting something sensational. He was astonished beyond his expectation, however, by Mrs. Kenson's next words.

"Your long and distasteful stay in the West, Captain Wallace, was not wholly the fortune of the military service," she said. "It was expedient that you should stay there, on account

He believed his assailant to be Kellerman, and, half unconscious as he was, he fought madly. But the man, Kellerman or not, was more than a match for him. For a few moments they wrestled furiously; then the other got his arm free and brought down the stick upon Mark's head again. And this time the light faded into blackness.

CHAPTER IX.

"Captain Wallace! Get up! Can you stand? Come with me!"

Mark opened his eyes and groaned. It was pitch dark, and he could see nothing, but he knew the voice for Hartley's.

"Where am I?" he muttered, trying to rise and sinking back again.

"In the Kenson house. Be quick! There! Listen!"

Outside there was the confused murmur of voices, above which came the sound of a crisp command. Then some implement fell heavily against the door of the house, splintering it. Again the cries broke out.

"Try again!" muttered Hartley in desperation. "There's a door into the empty house next door, through the cellar. The police don't know of it. You must get away. You must get away!"

Mark tried again, and this time managed to rise.

Hartley caught Mark by the arm and guided his unsteady footsteps to the door. They gained the passage, and Hartley guided Mark toward the head of the basement steps, which they reached just as the front door fell in under the hatchets of the raiders.

They scuttled down the stairs as the hall became filled with the shouting policemen.

Before the first of the raiders set his foot upon the stone stairs Hartley found a door in the darkness, opened it, and pushed Mark through, following immediately. He shut the door softly behind him. They were in the basement of the adjoining house.

"We're safe now," said Hartley in a whisper. "You'd better rest, Captain Wallace."

"You're Hartley," muttered Mark, sitting down and trying in vain to discern something of the other's face through the gloom. "What happened, and how did you come on the scene?"

"Good God forgive me!" moaned Hartley, suddenly breaking into hysterical sobbing, as on the former night. "I've ruined you, Captain Wallace. What else could I do?"

"So you were in that plot, eh?" asked Mark, wondering that he felt so little anger. "Well, it was clear enough, but it doesn't matter now."

"It matters everything," answered Hartley, in a vehement whisper. "They tricked me into it. I didn't know what their scheme was when I agreed to get you out of the room. But I found out later. And I had suspected. God, Captain Wallace, to think I found that door!"

"Never mind," said Mark soothingly, listening to the stamping of the raiders in the next house overhead. "What more do you know?"

"I knew that they wouldn't be satisfied with that."

"So you were in that plot, eh?" asked Mark, wondering that he felt so little anger. "Well, it was clear enough, but it doesn't matter now."

"It matters everything," answered Hartley, in a vehement whisper. "They tricked me into it. I didn't know what their scheme was when I agreed to get you out of the room. But I found out later. And I had suspected. God, Captain Wallace, to think I found that door!"

"Never mind," said Mark soothingly, listening to the stamping of the raiders in the next house overhead. "What more do you know?"

"I knew that they wouldn't be satisfied with that."

"So you were in that plot, eh?" asked Mark, wondering that he felt so little anger. "Well, it was clear enough, but it doesn't matter now."

"It matters everything," answered Hartley, in a vehement whisper. "They tricked me into it. I didn't know what their scheme was when I agreed to get you out of the room. But I found out later. And I had suspected. God, Captain Wallace, to think I found that door!"

"Never mind," said Mark soothingly, listening to the stamping of the raiders in the next house overhead. "What more do you know?"

"I knew that they wouldn't be satisfied with that."

"So you were in that plot, eh?" asked Mark, wondering that he felt so little anger. "Well, it was clear enough, but it doesn't matter now."

"It matters everything," answered Hartley, in a vehement whisper. "They tricked me into it. I didn't know what their scheme was when I agreed to get you out of the room. But I found out later. And I had suspected. God, Captain Wallace, to think I found that door!"

"Never mind," said Mark soothingly, listening to the stamping of the raiders in the next house overhead. "What more do you know?"

"I knew that they wouldn't be satisfied with that."

"So you were in that plot, eh?" asked Mark, wondering that he felt so little anger. "Well, it was clear enough, but it doesn't matter now."

"It matters everything," answered Hartley, in a vehement whisper. "They tricked me into it. I didn't know what their scheme was when I agreed to get you out of the room. But I found out later. And I had suspected. God, Captain Wallace, to think I found that door!"

"Never mind," said Mark soothingly, listening to the stamping of the raiders in the next house overhead. "What more do you know?"

"I knew that they wouldn't be satisfied with that."

"So you were in that plot, eh?" asked Mark, wondering that he felt so little anger. "Well, it was clear enough, but it doesn't matter now."

"It matters everything," answered Hartley, in a vehement whisper. "They tricked me into it. I didn't know what their scheme was when I agreed to get you out of the room. But I found out later. And I had suspected. God, Captain Wallace, to think I found that door!"

"Never mind," said Mark soothingly, listening to the stamping of the raiders in the next house overhead. "What more do you know?"

"I knew that they wouldn't be satisfied with that."

"So you were in that plot, eh?" asked Mark, wondering that he felt so little anger. "Well, it was clear enough, but it doesn't matter now."

"It matters everything," answered Hartley, in a vehement whisper. "They tricked me into it. I didn't know what their scheme was when I agreed to get you out of the room. But I found out later. And I had suspected. God, Captain Wallace, to think I found that door!"

"Never mind," said Mark soothingly, listening to the stamping of the raiders in the next house overhead. "What more do you know?"

"I knew that they wouldn't be satisfied with that."

"So you were in that plot, eh?" asked Mark, wondering that he felt so little anger. "Well, it was clear enough, but it doesn't matter now."

"It matters everything," answered Hartley, in a vehement whisper. "They tricked me into it. I didn't know what their scheme was when I agreed to get you out of the room. But I found out later. And I had suspected. God, Captain Wallace, to think I found that door!"

"Never mind," said Mark soothingly, listening to the stamping of the raiders in the next house overhead. "What more do you know?"

"I knew that they wouldn't be satisfied with that."

"So you were in that plot, eh?" asked Mark, wondering that he felt so little anger. "Well, it was clear enough, but it doesn't matter now."

"It matters everything," answered Hartley, in a vehement whisper. "They tricked me into it. I didn't know what their scheme was when I agreed to get you out of the room. But I found out later. And I had suspected. God, Captain Wallace, to think I found that door!"

"Never mind," said Mark soothingly, listening to the stamping of the raiders in the next house overhead. "What more do you know?"

"I knew that they wouldn't be satisfied with that."

"So you were in that plot, eh?" asked Mark, wondering that he felt so little anger. "Well, it was clear enough, but it doesn't matter now."

"It matters everything," answered Hartley, in a vehement whisper. "They tricked me into it. I didn't know what their scheme was when I agreed to get you out of the room. But I found out later. And I had suspected. God, Captain Wallace, to think I found that door!"

"Never mind," said Mark soothingly, listening to the stamping of the raiders in the next house overhead. "What more do you know?"

"I knew that they wouldn't be satisfied with that."

ned with that, sir. They—"

"One moment. Who is 'they,' Hartley?"

"They," repeated Hartley vindictively. "Those devils that make pawns of men. They meant to clinch their dirty work one way or another. They meant to buy you, after ruining you, and fashion you to their dirty work. If they couldn't do that they were going to—"

"Murder me?"

"No, sir. Discredit you so that nothing you could say would be listened to."

"That's what they meant to do. It was I who was told to give the tip to the police that there was gambling here. They thought the place was closed—and it was. But they wanted the police to find you here, and arrest you, so that the story might get into the newspapers, and finish you—finish you with the war department, and with Miss Howard."

"And what did you expect to get out of it, Hartley?" asked Mark.

JANESVILLE GAZETTE
Classified Advertising

CLASSIFIED RATES
1 insertion 7c per line
2 insertions 12c per line
3 insertions 18c per line
4 insertions 24c per line
5 insertions 30c per line
6 insertions 36c per line
7 insertions 42c per line
8 insertions 48c per line
9 insertions 54c per line
10 insertions 60c per line
11 insertions 66c per line
12 insertions 72c per line
13 insertions 78c per line
14 insertions 84c per line
15 insertions 90c per line
16 insertions 96c per line
17 insertions 1.02 per line
18 insertions 1.08 per line
19 insertions 1.14 per line
20 insertions 1.20 per line
21 insertions 1.26 per line
22 insertions 1.32 per line
23 insertions 1.38 per line
24 insertions 1.44 per line
25 insertions 1.50 per line
26 insertions 1.56 per line
27 insertions 1.62 per line
28 insertions 1.68 per line
29 insertions 1.74 per line
30 insertions 1.80 per line
31 insertions 1.86 per line
32 insertions 1.92 per line
33 insertions 1.98 per line
34 insertions 2.04 per line
35 insertions 2.10 per line
36 insertions 2.16 per line
37 insertions 2.22 per line
38 insertions 2.28 per line
39 insertions 2.34 per line
40 insertions 2.40 per line
41 insertions 2.46 per line
42 insertions 2.52 per line
43 insertions 2.58 per line
44 insertions 2.64 per line
45 insertions 2.70 per line
46 insertions 2.76 per line
47 insertions 2.82 per line
48 insertions 2.88 per line
49 insertions 2.94 per line
50 insertions 3.00 per line
51 insertions 3.06 per line
52 insertions 3.12 per line
53 insertions 3.18 per line
54 insertions 3.24 per line
55 insertions 3.30 per line
56 insertions 3.36 per line
57 insertions 3.42 per line
58 insertions 3.48 per line
59 insertions 3.54 per line
60 insertions 3.60 per line
61 insertions 3.66 per line
62 insertions 3.72 per line
63 insertions 3.78 per line
64 insertions 3.84 per line
65 insertions 3.90 per line
66 insertions 3.96 per line
67 insertions 4.02 per line
68 insertions 4.08 per line
69 insertions 4.14 per line
70 insertions 4.20 per line
71 insertions 4.26 per line
72 insertions 4.32 per line
73 insertions 4.38 per line
74 insertions 4.44 per line
75 insertions 4.50 per line
76 insertions 4.56 per line
77 insertions 4.62 per line
78 insertions 4.68 per line
79 insertions 4.74 per line
80 insertions 4.80 per line
81 insertions 4.86 per line
82 insertions 4.92 per line
83 insertions 4.98 per line
84 insertions 5.04 per line
85 insertions 5.10 per line
86 insertions 5.16 per line
87 insertions 5.22 per line
88 insertions 5.28 per line
89 insertions 5.34 per line
90 insertions 5.40 per line
91 insertions 5.46 per line
92 insertions 5.52 per line
93 insertions 5.58 per line
94 insertions 5.64 per line
95 insertions 5.70 per line
96 insertions 5.76 per line
97 insertions 5.82 per line
98 insertions 5.88 per line
99 insertions 5.94 per line
100 insertions 6.00 per line

NO AD TAKEN LESS THAN 25c OR LESS THAN 2 LINES.

CONTRACT RATES furnished on application at the Gazette office. All Want Ads CLOSING before 12 noon of day of publication.

OUT-OF-TOWN ADS must be accompanied with cash in full payment for same. Count the words carefully and insertions in accordance with above rates.
The Gazette reserves the right to classify all ads according to its own rules and regulations.

TELEPHONE YOUR WANT ADS
when it is more convenient to do so.
The bill will be mailed to you and as the bill is an accommodation service the Gazette expects payment promptly or at once.

Persons whose names do not appear in the (City Directory) must send cash with phone direct to the office.

NOTICE: The person who took the trucks from in front of the First National bank Saturday morning will be liable for returning the same at once. First National Bank.

STAMPS—Lost between Metzinger's market and Cullen's Grocery Store.
Two War Savings Stamps. Finder
please leave at Post office.

TIRE—Lost between Monroe and Janesville. Size 32x34. Finder please return same to Gazette.

FEMALE HELP WANTED
COMPETENT GIRL—For general
housework. Family of 2. Laundry employed. Apply 429 Prospect Ave.,
L. C. phone 490.

COMPETENT GIRL—For general
housework. Mrs. P. L. Munger, 316
Madison St.

GIRL—For general housework. Two in family. Apply at once. Mrs. W.
F. Fulmer, 802 Court St.

GIRL—For general housework. Apply Mrs. Fred Ehringer, 211 Jackman St.

WAITRESS—Chamber maid, private houses. Mrs. E. McCarthy, Bell 420,
R. C. 760 White. Licensed.

WOMAN—Good kitchen woman. One who understands short order work.
Will pay good wages to good woman.
Apply immediately. McDonald's
Cafe, S. Main St.

MALE HELP WANTED
BOY—16 years of age to work in Drug Store. Apply at once. McCue & Sons.

MECHANICS—Chance for speedy advancement. Townsend Mfg. Co.

150 LABORERS
wanted at Janesville Machine Co., new plant at Spring Brook. 40c per hour.

J. P. CULLEN,
CONTRACTOR

TEAMSTER—For steady work. Apply Fifield Lumber Co.

THREE MEN
OVER DRAFT AGE TO OPER-ATE AUTOMATIC MACHINES
EASY AND INTERESTING WORK. APPLY AT ONCE.

PARKER PEN CO.

SITUATIONS WANTED
POSITION—By lady with experience as clerk in grocery or department store. Call R. C. phone 1284 Blue.

SCHOOL GIRL—Wants position with room and board for light service. Address "L. M." care of Gazette.

ROOMS FOR RENT
CHERRY ST. 171—Three unfurnished rooms.

MAIN ST. 224—Strictly modern furnished front room.

ROOM—Well furnished room, large enough for two. Steam heat, 5 minutes walk from Myers Hotel. Bell phone 1355.

ROOM—Strictly modern furnished room. Kitchen privileges. Address
R. C. care of Gazette.

LIGHT HOUSEKEEPING ROOMS
ROOMS—For rent, three nicely furnished modern rooms for light housekeeping. Bell phone 2173.

LIVESTOCK AND VEHICLES
GOOD TEAMING OUTFIT—Horses, harnesses, wagon and bobs. Also three acres timber, with good gravel pit. For cash or on time. Henry Kaylor, both phones.

HORSES—For sale, work and driving horses. Janesville Delivery Co.

LIVESTOCK AND VEHICLES
HORSE—Wanted to buy cheap work horse. Frank Fisher, Bell phone 1420.

THREE PIGS—For sale, weighing between 200 and 300 lbs. each. Inquire
Mrs. Barbara McKinney, Bell phone
9901 J. 12. Call after 5 p. m.

POULTRY AND PET STOCK
CHICKENS—For sale, full blood
Rhode Island red, Rhode Island Red
cockerels. May Hatch, Phone 989
Red. 70 Park St.

CHICKENS—For sale, Single comb
Rhode Island red, Rhode Island Red
cockerels. May Hatch, Phone 989
Red. 70 Park St.

MISCELLANEOUS FOR SALE
MATRIX PAPER—Air tight linings for buildings, size 18x22 inches, price 50c per hundred sheets. Ask for samples at Gazette Office.

ROCK COUNTY MAPS—22x24 1/2 in. showing all roads, farms, etc., including all rural routes. Printed on heavy bond paper. 25c each at Gazette Office.

WOOD—For the grubbing. Walter
Britt, Bell phone 1618.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS
SQUARE PIANO—For sale. Inquire
21 N. Pearl St.

MACHINERY AND TOOLS
CORNBINDERS—For sale, the best by test in all conditions of corn. We have a limited supply. Call and see us. H. P. Ratlow, Tiffany, Wisconsin.

MANURE SPREADERS—New stock, prices right. Five year written guarantee with each spreader. H. P.
Ratlow & Co., Tiffany, Wis.

HOUSEHOLD GOODS
BED—For sale, oak bed, complete $3.
Mission library table $1.50, bookcase $7. Sanitary couch, dining chair, cot, chifftones, etc. Bell phone 1870.

COAL HEATERS
Several second hand coal heaters.
$10.00 and up. Call and see them.
FRANK DOUGLAS
Practical Hardware
15-17 S. River St.

FARMERS ATTENTION
THE FAVORITE
All Cast Ranges and heaters
Sold in Janesville for 40 years.

TALK TO LOWELL

GAS RANGES
Three second hand gas ranges. In good condition. $7.00, $8.00 and $10.00. Call and see them.
FRANK DOUGLAS
Practical Hardware
15-17 S. River St.

GAS STOVES
3 second hand gas stoves for sale
Prices $5.00, $6.00 and $8.00.
Good condition.

TALK TO LOWELL

STOVE—Wanted three burner kerosene stove. R. C. phone 54-A.

SPRINGS AND MATTRESSES
I have just received a carload of springs and mattresses. Save money by buying here. Call and get your pick while the stock is at its highest.

JANESVILLE HOUSE-
WRECKING CO.
56 S. River St.

STOVES STOVES STOVES
Save money and buy Oak soft coal, scook or laundry stoves here. We have a complete stock
Prices right. Call and see us.

JANESVILLE HOUSE-
WRECKING CO.
56 S. River St.

SPECIALS AT THE SHOPS
FLORIST—Floral designs our specialty. Chas. Rathjen, W. Milw. St.

FARM AND DAIRY PRODUCTS
HOLLAND CABBAGE—For sale. Call
Bell phone 206.

FLOUR AND FEED
BARLEY MIDDINGS—Choice white barley middings, thirty-five dollars per ton bulk. Doty's Mill, Dodge street, both phones.

BRAN—We have a car of bran in.
Better get your requirements while it lasts. Bower City Feed Co., 120 Park St.

DAIRY FEED. of the best quality. Our own make feed is licensed and shows the following analysis:
Protein 18%, Fat 3.5%, Fiber 14%
Sells for $47.00 per ton, $2.20 per 100 lbs. if you bring your own burlap sack.

The feed is high enough in protein and fiber to produce a high flow of milk and keep your cows in good flesh. Try it out the next time you need dairy feed.

Car midds and bran in now. Also oil meal, ground feed, etc., at lowest prices.
Bring us your wheat, oats, barley, timothy, clover seed. We reclaim seed of all kinds.
F. H. GREEN & SON
N. Main St.

HAY—Grain, feed and flour. J. W.
Echlin, Court St. Bridge.

SERVICES OFFERED
SHEARS SHARPENED—Saws filed.
Premo Bros.

SHEET METAL AND COPPER
WORK—E. H. Felton, 17 Court St. will do expert work for you. Roofing gutters, repairing.

SERVICES OFFERED
(Continued).

FURNACE CLEANING.

Don't forget your furnace. Have it cleaned and repaired now. If you want a new furnace we have them.

TALK TO LOWELL

TEAMING—By day or hour. Ashes and refuse removed. C. A. La Sore,
Bell phone 2063.

TIN AND FURNACE WORK of all kinds. Expert workmen. Talk to Lowell, 109 W. Milwaukee St. Both phones.

HEATING AND PLUMBING

H. E. HATHORN—603 N. Palm St.
R. C. phone 282 Blue. Bell 1915.
Estimates cheerfully furnished.

PAINTING AND DECORATING

PATTONS

SUN PROOF

PAINT

VARNISH

OIL

GLASS

TALK TO LOWELL

WALL PAPER and paper hanging.
Come in and look over our samples.
All work fully guaranteed. John Hampel & Co., 23 N. Main St.

TRANSFER AND STORAGE
TALK TO LOWELL—Dry and clean warehouse for storage of stoves and furniture. 109 W. Milwaukee St.
Both phones.

REPAIRING
WELL DRILLING—Windmill repairing. All parts carried in stock. Phone us, our auto will call. Globe Works
820 N. Main St.

INSURANCE
BEST LIFE INSURANCE—Northwestern Mutual. F. A. Blackman, Agent, Jackman Block, both phones.

AUTOMOBILES FOR SALE
FORD touring car. 1 Ford delivery
car. 1 Cadillac Touring car $200.
Janesville Vulcanizing Co.

USED CARS
One 1917 Ford Touring car.
Three 1917 Ford roadsters, with demountable rims and just painted.
One 1917 Ford with express body and 1000 lbs. can be used for milk truck or for light trucking.
One 5-passenger Sampson, just painted, $175.
One 7-passenger Studebaker, with starter, $275.00.
One Ford truck, with platform body, $400.00.
One Ford runabout with delivery
box.
Several other bargains.
Also a few new Sedans.
ROBERT F. BUGGS,
Janesville, Wis.

MOTORCYCLES AND BICYCLES
BICYCLE REPAIRING—and overhauling. Expert workman. Wm.
Ballentine, 122 Corn Exchange.

BICYCLE REPAIRING—All kinds of bicycle supplies. We carry a complete line of bicycle tires. Premo Bros.

FLATS FOR RENT
FLAT—Modern furnished flat, with furnace heat. Address "55" care of Gazette.

FLAT—5 room flat on ground floor.
Inquire Jennie Bradley, 21 N. Pearl
St.

HOUSES FOR RENT
CHATHAM ST. N. 563—Small house.
Inquire 619 Madison.

MILTON AVE. 412—Half of house and garage. Also house and garage Milwaukee Ave. Bell 1725.

MODERN 10 ROOM HOUSE in best location of Third Ward, very close in. House in first class condition.
Inman & Riedel, 321 Hayes Block.

UPPER APARTMENT—Immediate possession given. Inquire Cunningham agency.

WESTERN AVE.—5 room house. Also
7 room house on Riverside St. Call
Bell phone 1955.

WANTED TO RENT
HOUSE—5 or 6 room house. In third or fourth ward. Call Bell phone 2085.

ROOMS—Desirable furnished rooms or house by reliable party. Phone R.
C. phone 797 Blue or Bell 1603.

HOUSES FOR SALE
HOUSE—Modern seven room house.
Inquire of J. K. Jensen, 827 Court St.

FARMS FOR SALE
40 ACRES—4 miles east of Janesville
$200. 77 acres on Leyden road, $156
135 acres on Afton, north river road
$135. 150 acres, 1 mile east of Janesville $115. These are exceptionally good farms and prices are considerably below exact value of the land. Inman & Riedel, room 321
Hayes Block.

GOOD THINGS TO EAT
FOR A TASTY DINNER—eat at the Savoy Cafe, 34 S. Main St. Price 25c and up.

CLEANERS AND DYERS
SUIT CLEANING. and pressing. All work turned out in stated time.

BADGER DYE WORKS
On the Bridge.

AUCTION DIRECTORY.
Published FREE by the Gazette For
The Benefit of Our Readers.

Oct. 8—Geo. Wagoner, Milton Jet.
R. F. D. Col. W. T. Dooley, auctioneer.

Oct. 8—Bert Sheard, Rte. 31, Beloit.
Fred Taves, Auctioneer.

Oct. 9—Wm. Dietrich, 4 miles east of Beloit, Rte. 30. Fred Taves, auctioneer.

Oct. 9—Earnest Zick on the Weaver farm, Clinton Jet. Col. W. T.
Dooley, auctioneer.

Oct. 12—Rev. Lepke, Hanover. G.
J. Schofield, auctioneer.

Oct. 15—Wm. Hoover, Prop. Hanover, Wis. G. F. Schaffner, Auctioneer.

Oct. 16—Carl Reimer, 5 miles west of Beloit. Fred Taves, Auctioneer.

Oct. 16—Louis Fossum, 5 miles southeast of Orderville, Beloit Rte.
27. Fred Taves, auctioneer.

Oct. 16—Alfred Pearl, R. F. D. 8, city. Col. W. T. Dooley, auctioneer.

Oct. 18—Frank Topp, Rte. 17,
Evanston, Wisconsin. Dan Finnane, auctioneer.

DELAVAN

Delavan, Oct. 5.—Herbert Blodgett has been honorably discharged from the army and is at his home here in Delavan from Camp Grant. He is Clarence Hoffstadt from New York
City was a Delavan business caller Friday.

Claude Davis was a Milwaukee passenger Friday morning.

James Whelan from Canada is in Delavan calling on his many Delavan friends before leaving for Hot Springs,
Ark. for the winter.

Dr. Carol Rice has received his commission and will soon leave Delavan for military duty.

Dr. and Mrs. A. Pynn were Milwaukee visitors for a couple of days this past week.

Miller Cross from Chicago was a business caller in Delavan, Thursday.

Joseph Cahill went to Chicago yesterday morning to enlist in the marine corps, but failed to pass the physical examination owing to broken arches.

Mrs. Archie Morrissey was an Elkhorn visitor Friday afternoon.

Edwin O'Neill from Boston, Mass., was a Delavan caller Thursday.

A conference on religious education will be given at the Congregational church tomorrow afternoon at 4:00 o'clock, under the leadership of Dr.
Gammon of Chicago.

Miss Luella Mereness is now employed at the Bradley office.

Rev. Father Buckley was a Janesville caller Thursday afternoon.

The Misses Katherine and Mary Julia are spending three weeks with relatives and friends at Tressa, Wis.
Mrs. Dr. B. Holmes received word yesterday that her husband was seriously ill at Camp Custer, and she departed for that place last evening.

E. Dykeman was a Janesville caller on Thursday.

Miss June Gray is spending a few days with friends in Madison.

A. W. Johnson was a Delavan caller
Friday afternoon.

The following officers were elected for the Curtis club for the following year: President, Miss Ethel Adams;
vice-president, Mrs. B. L. Snashall; recording secretary, Mrs. Harriet Topping; treasurer, Miss Julia Krahn.

Mrs. and Mrs. Walter Matteson from Oconomowoc are visiting relatives here for a few days.

Mrs. A. L. Van de Bogart has accepted a position as nurse in Waukesha sanitarium and commenced her duties today.

Mrs. Joseph Plank of Chicago is spending a few days at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Fred Larson.

Sherrill Babcock spent Thursday with friends in Delavan.

Mrs. H. Washburn left for Kitchen, Ontario this week where she will nurse her husband's return from the war.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church met with Mrs. Kenneth Smith yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. John Welch and the Misses
Bess Murphy, Alleen Gabel and Mamie Casey motored to Beloit this afternoon.

Andrew Hassman expects soon to enter military service, possibly in the officers' training school.

All business places were closed yesterday from three to four o'clock during the funeral of Dr. Ray Rice.

The executive board of the Women's Council meets this afternoon at the library.

NOTICE—Gazette is on sale at Rustad's Drug Store, opposite the Post Office.

JOHNSTOWN
Johnstown, Oct. 5.—At the annual Red Cross meeting Mrs. D. J. McLaughlin was elected chairman. Mrs. Florence Hull was elected vice chairman and Mrs. P. J. McFarlane secretary. Agnes McLay treasurer.

A patriotic meeting will be held at the town hall Saturday evening, Oct.
12. The meeting was arranged by Miss Marion Peterson, Miss May White and Miss Porter and their pupils.

Wednesday Merle Rice received a message that his uncle Dr. Ray Rice had passed away. A short time after another message came that an aunt of Mrs. Rice, Mrs. George Phelps of Oshkosh had died. Mr.
Phelps used to live here and was well known.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Bjorklund and family attended the annual Baptist church dinner in Delavan on Saturday.

Miss Alice Pinnow closed her school in the Stone district last week on account of sickness.

There are many ill with the epidemic
Some are getting better, others are very sick.

Sage and Field's men from Delavan, are erecting silos for Wm. Brummud and J. W. Jones.

Preliminary Hearing.
Eau Claire.—The preliminary hearing of Mrs. Louis Krueger and son Frank, of Clark county, scheduled for Saturday at Neillsville, on a charge of murder and evading the draft, was again postponed until Oct. 11 because Frank's wounds were not yet sufficiently healed to permit him leaving the jail.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS
STATE OF WISCONSIN.
County Court for Rock County.
In Probate.

Notice is hereby given that at a regular term of the County Court to be held in and for said County, at the Court House, in the City of Janesville, in said County, on the first Tuesday of the 5th day of November, A.
D. 1918, at the opening of said term the following matters will be heard and considered:

The application of Edward Duthie of the estate of James R. Duthie, decased, for the appointment of a receiver for the examination and allowance of his final account, and for the assignment of the residue of the estate of said deceased to such persons as are by law entitled thereto; and for the determination and adjudication of the inheritance tax, if any, payable in said estate.

Dated October 7th, 1918.
By the Court: CHARLES H. FIFIELD, County Judge.

Charles H. Lange,
Attorney for the Administrator.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS
STATE OF WISCONSIN.
County Court for Rock County.
In Probate.

Notice is hereby given that at a

By WILBUR D. NESBIT

There were 62 names in a recent casualty list.

Twenty-two of those names were of men who were obviously of foreign blood.

Joseph Maciejewski and George Verkoulas and Eggi Ganski and Thomas Villoito and Wesley Knutson and Toras Maximovitch were among them.

So it went — Greek, Italian, Swede, Dane, Russian, Jew, Pole, German — you could find as many nationalities as you knew.

Yet they were all "Yanks."

The casualty lists keep coming; the names keep pouring over the cable. Oh, yes, the Smiths, and Joneses and Browns are all there.

All the boys whose great-great-grandfathers and great-grandfathers and grandfathers and fathers have fought for liberty right here—their names are in the lists.

Yet, somehow, one's hand involuntarily goes up in salute to Szysperski and Mente and Schwarz—to these "Yanks" whose fathers and mothers just a few years back stepped from deck to dock and blinked their eyes in the knowledge that at last their dreams of freedom had come true.

Why, we folks who have lived here all our lives and who can't remember when our folks weren't native Americans — here's a rich blessing for us!

These people who came to our shores believing in us are proving their belief. Their boys are fighting for our common country and for our common beliefs and principles.

They are "Yanks"—God bless them!

And every time you buy a Liberty Bond you put a newer and higher courage in the hearts of all our boys, but especially of those boys whose parents came here so that their sons might be free to fight for liberty if liberty had to be defended.

Every penny you lend our government in your investment in Liberty Bonds goes to give us a better army and navy.

There isn't a soul living who owns bonds of the first, second or third Liberty Loans who isn't proud of what he has helped to do for our country.

Now it is the Fourth Liberty Loan—bigger than was ever known before, and backed by greater resources than any investment you ever made.

Don't wait for the final "spurt;" don't wait for the fire of enthusiasm; don't wait for speeches and parades and bands.

Buy your Liberty Bonds now, for you know you are going to buy them.

You are not sacrificing a penny; you are not giving a cent.

You are lending your money; you get good interest for it; you get your money back.

Best of all, you are saying to Gerondo and Norvich and Nowatny and all the other boys who are fighting shoulder to shoulder with Smith and Jones and Brown:

"We Yanks are standing together! The old flag that our forefathers worshiped means more today than it ever did!"

U. S. Government Bonds
Fourth Liberty Loan
Buy Them TODAY—Don't Wait

This Space Contributed to Winning the War By
THE ROCK RIVER WOOLEN MILLS
 Contribution Acknowledged By A. E. Matheson, Publicity
 Chairman, Fourth Liberty Loan.

The Big Drive Starts Tomorrow

"Over the top" in this matter and oversubscribe our quota. Subscribe at Liberty Loan Station, No. 5 N. Main street and be prepared to pay 10 % of the amount you subscribe. Get over here in early. Lancaster should finish up this drive and reach her objective in two days.